Encyclopedia of War Crimes and Genocide Leslie Alan Horvitz, Christopher Catherwood, 2014-05-14 Entries address topics related to genocide crimes against humanity and peace and human rights violations profile perpetrators including Joseph Stalin Pol Pot and Idi Amin and discuss institutions set up to prosecute these crimes in countries around the world

The Right to Punish Luise Müller, 2024-05-31 What gives international courts the authority to punish individuals for international crimes Through the lens of political philosophy Luise Müller provides an original perspective on the justification of the authority of international criminal courts and tribunals She argues that institutions of international criminal justice are permitted to pierce the sovereignty of states in order to punish high profile politicians for genocide crimes against humanity war crimes and other mass human rights violations Their right to punish is justified by virtue of their function to deter mass violations of fundamental human rights However to legitimately exercise that right international criminal justice institutions must fulfil two conditions first they must conduct criminal trials with the highest level of fairness second they must treat those who are subject to their authority as equals This last condition can be satisfied by international criminal justice institutions by including procedures of democratic decision making and democratic accountability

Philosophy and International Law David Lefkowitz, 2020-10-29 In Philosophy and International Law David Lefkowitz examines core questions of legal and political philosophy through critical reflection on contemporary international law Is international law really law The answer depends on what makes law Does the existence of law depend on coercive enforcement Or institutions such as courts Or fidelity to the requirements of the rule of law Or conformity to moral standards Answers to these questions are essential for determining the truth or falsity of international legal skepticism and understanding why it matters Is international law morally defensible This book makes a start to answering that question by engaging with recent debates on the nature and grounds of human rights the moral justifiability of the law of war the concept of a crime against humanity the moral basis of universal jurisdiction the propriety of international law governing secession and the justice of international trade law Crimes Against Humanity Nergis Canefe,2021-04-15 This book brings together jurisprudential debates on international criminal law international law scholarship on the limits of state sovereignty and applied political philosophy concerning responsibility and accountability in the context of mass political crimes and state criminality It offers a compelling view of legal reasoning concerning accountability regimes in the Global South No other study addresses questions of ethical dimensions of mass crimes and accountability for state criminality The Global Prosecution of Core Crimes under International Law Christopher Soler,2019-09-18 This book deals with the prosecution of core crimes and constitutes the first comprehensive analysis of the horizontal and vertical systems of enforcement of international criminal law and of their inter relationship It provides a global jurisprudential exposition in assessing the grounds for refusal of surrender to the International Criminal Court and of extradition to another State It also offers insights into legal perspectives which improve the prevailing enforcement regimes of various models of criminal justice including hybrid criminal tribunals special criminal courts judicial panels and partnerships and other budding sui generis judicial and or prosecutorial institutions The book espouses a human rights law oriented critique to the enforcement of domestic regional and international criminal justice and is aimed at legal practitioners prosecutors defence lawyers magistrates and judges jurists criminal justice experts penologists legal researchers human rights activists and law students Christopher Soler lectures Maltese criminal law international criminal law and public international law at the University of Malta He obtained his Ph D from the University of Amsterdam in The Netherlands Research Handbook on the Theory and History of International Law Alexander Orakhelashvili,2020-12-25 This updated and revised second edition with contributions from renowned experts provides a comprehensive scholarly framework for analyzing the theory and history of international law Featuring an array of legal and interdisciplinary analyses it focuses on those theories and developments that illuminate the central and timeless basic concepts and categories of the international legal system highlighting the interdependency of various aspects of theory and history and demonstrating the connections between theory and practice Ethics and Future Generations Rahul Kumar,2018-10-18 Existing human beings stand in a unique relationship of asymmetrical influence over future generations Our choices now can settle whether there are any human beings in the further future how many will exist what capacities and abilities they might have and what the character of the natural world they inhabit is like This volume with contributions from both new voices and prominent established figures in moral and political philosophy examines three generally underexplored themes concerning morality and our relationship to future generations First would it be morally wrong to allow humanity to go extinct Or do we have moral reasons to try and ensure that humanity continues into the indefinite future Second if humanity is to continue into the future how many people should there be And is it morally important whether they have lives that are of high quality or are just barely worth living And third how can we best make sense of the intuitive idea that by not taking action on climate change and preserving natural resources we are in some way

wronging future generations This book was originally published as a special issue of the Canadian Journal of Philosophy

Authority, Cooperation, and Accountability Saba Bazargan-Forward, 2022-07-28 How should we decide a single employee's accountability in a corporation that commits egregious wrongs What about a single soldier fighting in an unjust war Or a single participant in a lynching We need a way to make sense of individual moral accountability in cases where multiple individuals are cooperating in a way that results in a wrongful harm Authority Cooperation and Accountability develops a novel strategy for addressing this issue Saba Bazargan Forward makes the case for thinking that distinct aspects of human agency normally wrapped up in a single person can be distributed practically across different people He argues that we distribute agency routinely by forming promises by making requests by issuing demands and by undertaking shared action The resulting division of agential labour makes possible a distinctive way in which one person can be accountable for the actions of another Bazargan Forward highlights that what matters morally is not just our causal contributions to wrongful cooperative activity In addition the purposes we confer upon one another can inculcate us as well The result is an account that can help us make sense of individual moral accountability in a bureaucratized world The first half of the book develops a theory of accountability in the context of cooperation The second half applies this theory to war ethics criminal law business ethics and institutional racism

Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Crimes Against Humanity A Normative Account Cambridge Studies In Philosophy And Law : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
