Walker,2017-07-05 One of the oldest and most extensive forms of criminology falls within what is referred to among other names as social ecology Beginning with the work of Guerry and Quetelet this theory became the dominate paradigm in explaining crime with the work of the Chicago School in the early 1900s social disorganization theory and neighborhood research attempting to deal with crime in deteriorating cities Social ecology is also the basis for the research being conducted in environmental criminology This volume offers a selection of the most influential works in social ecology and environmental criminology It begins with research from human ecology and the Chicago School extending through some of the research in social disorganization theory It encompasses some of the major journal articles from the 1980s and 1990s in neighborhoods and crime and then addresses some of the quintessential works in environmental criminology It ends with groundbreaking work in this area that may indicate the future direction of the field This valuable collection includes an excellent introduction by Jeff Walker Handbook on Crime Fiona Brookman, Mike Maguire, Harriet Pierpoint, Trevor

Bennett,2010-02-01 The Handbook on Crime is a comprehensive edited volume that contains analysis and explanation of the nature extent patterns and causes of over 40 different forms of crime in each case drawing attention to key contemporary debates and social and criminal justice responses to them It also challenges many popular and official conceptions of crime This book is one of the few criminological texts that takes as its starting point a range of specific types of criminal activity It addresses not only conventional offences such as shoplifting burglary robbery and vehicle crime but many other forms of criminal behaviour often an amalgamation of different legal offences which attract contemporary media public and policy concern These include crimes committed not only by individuals but by organised criminal groups corporations and governments There are chapters on for example gang violence hate crime elder abuse animal abuse cyber crime identity theft money laundering eco crimes drug trafficking human trafficking genocide and global terrorism Many of these topics receive surprisingly little attention in the criminological literature The Handbook on Crime will be a unique text of lasting value to students researchers academics practitioners policy makers journalists and all others involved in understanding and preventing criminal behaviour
