Corruption And Chimamanda Adichie Critics:

Corruption Plots Malini Ranganathan, David L. Pike, Sapana Doshi, 2023-04-15 Winner of the Anthony Leeds Prize in Urban Anthropology by the American Anthropological Association Corruption Plots illuminates how corruption is fundamental to global storytelling about how states and elites abuse entrusted power in late capitalism The millennial city of the global South is a charged setting for allegations of corruption with skyscrapers land grabs and slum evictions invoking outrage at deepening economic polarization Drawing on ethnography in Bengaluru and Mumbai and a cross section of literary and cinematic stories from cities around the world Malini Ranganathan David L Pike and Sapana Doshi pay close attention to the racial caste class and gender locations of the narrators spaces and publics imagined to be harmed by corruption Corruption Plots demonstrates how corruption talk is leveraged to make sense of unequal spatial change and used opportunistically by those who are themselves implicated in wrongdoing Offering a wide ranging analysis of urban worlds the authors reveal the ethical spatial and political stakes of storytelling and how vital it is to examine the corruption plot in all its contradictions

The Politics of the Right Leo Panitch, Greg Albo, 2015-12-22 Today the Left faces new challenges from political forces amassing on the radical right The 52nd volume of the Socialist Register presents a serious calibration and a careful political mapping of these forces It addresses pivotal questions on the reordering of the new right These essays very broad in terms of themes and places speak to the global challenges the new right poses for the left at this historical moment What is the nature of the right s populism nationalism and militarism What is the social base and organizational strength and range of far right political forces To what extent are they influencing mainstream parties and opinion How have they penetrated state institutions What role do state security services and police forces play Does our political situation today require comparison with 1930s Fascism How should the left respond to defend democratic and human rights

Conspicuous Consumption in Africa Ilana van Wyk, Deborah Posel, 2019-05-01 A collection of essays examining cultures of consumption on the African continent From early department stores in Cape Town to gendered histories of sartorial success in urban Togo contestations over expense accounts at an apartheid state enterprise elite wealth and political corruption in Angola and Zambia the role of popular religion in the political intransigence of Jacob Zuma funerals of big men in Cameroon youth cultures of consumption in Niger and South Africa queer consumption in Cape Town middle class food consumption in Durban and the consumption of luxury handcrafted beads this collection of essays explores the ways in which conspicuous consumption is foregrounded in various African contexts and historical moments The essays in Conspicuous Consumption in Africa put Thorstein Veblen s concept under robust critical scrutiny delving into the pleasures stresses and challenges of consuming in its religious generational gendered and racialised aspects revealing conspicuous consumption as a layered set of practices textures and relations This volume shows how central and revealing conspicuous consumption can be to fathoming the history of Africa s projects of modernity and their global lineages and legacies In its

Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Daria Tunca, 2020-08-25 Nigerian author Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie b 1977 is undoubtedly one of the most widely acclaimed African writers of the twenty first century Best known for her insightful fiction viral TED talks and essays on feminism she is also an outspoken intellectual As she puts it in an interview with Lia Grainger in her characteristically straightforward style I have things to say and I ll say them Conversations with Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie is the first collection of interviews with the writer Covering fifteen years of conversations the interviews start with the publication of Adichie s first novel Purple

Hibiscus 2003 and end in late 2018 by which time Adichie had become one of the most prominent figures on the international literary scene As both scholars and passionate readers of the author s work are bound to find out the opinions shared by Adichie in interviews over the years coalesce into a fascinating portrait that presents both abiding features and gradual transformations Reflecting the political and emotional scope of Adichie s work the conversations contained in this volume cover a wide range of topics including colonialism race immigration and feminism Collectively these interviews testify both to the author s ardent wish to strive for a more just and equal world and to her deep interest in exploring our common humanity As Adichie says in her 2009 interview with Joshua Jelly Schapiro When people call me a novelist I say well yes I really think of myself as a storyteller This book invites Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie to tell her own literary story Critiquing the

Postcolonial Construct in Chinua Achebe's Novels Ranjana Das Sarkhel,2018-11-21 Chinua Achebe s novels have always been read as texts from an erstwhile colonised African nation interpreted within the parameters suggested by postcolonial theorists The confines of postcolonial readings have raised questions about when the postcolonial period would end so that writers would no longer need to write back to the empire or rewrite their histories This work explores how Achebe s novels articulate his knowledge of his own people and the manner in which he participates in the politics of representation He critiques the postcolonial methodology and seeks out recovers and provides an alternative narrative of the postcolonial experience and its aftermath even as he seems to be moving beyond it Achebe s narratives do not conform to the postcolonial constructs of history as telling rather than recalling and of nations in terms of states rather than people Achebe combines the techniques available to historians documentation with those of novelists the imaginative re creation of events for his fictional evocation of the past He emphasises both the African artists role in helping to create a more egalitarian society and that of the act of storytelling as a shaping force in people s lives As he negotiates between his narrative form and realistic subject matter Achebe puts forward a powerful critique of colonisation and its aftermath Achebe represents a canonical voice in the emerging discourse of writers struggling to break free from the clichéd world of anti imperialism and decolonisation
