Richard Cowell, Susan Owens

Constructing Local Environmental Agendas People Places And Participation:

Constructing Local Environmental Agendas Susan Buckingham-Hatfield, Susan Percy, 2005-06-23 Constructing Local Environmental Agendas provides an invaluable insight into the experiences of parallel projects across the world particularly in the UK and the rest of Europe Australia Sri Lanka and Pakistan

Constructing Local Environmental Agendas Susan Buckingham-Hatfield, Susan Percy, 2005-06-23 Constructing Local Environmental Agendas draws on original contributions from specialists worldwide to argue that there is scope for local areas to improve their environments provided local people are involved International case studies from UK Europe Australia Pakistan and Sri Lanka demonstrate the importance of respect for indigenous knowledge and the need to remove layers of bureaucracy from policy making

Landscape and Sustainability John F. Benson, Maggie H. Roe, 2005-11-29 Sustainability is highly topical but no one has yet examined its relationship to landscape architecture in any detail Contributions from leading academics and professionals in the field Will be regarded as the definitive work on the subject Breadth of approach subject examined from planning design science and management perspectives

Disposable Cities Garth Andrew Myers, 2017-03-02 Based on in depth fieldwork in three cities Dar es Salaam Zanzibar and Lusaka this book provides a critical analysis of the United Nations Sustainable Cities Program in Africa SCP Focusing on the SCP's policies for solid waste management which was identified as the top priority problem by the SCP the book examines the success of these pilot schemes and the SCP's record in building new relationships between people and government It argues that the SCP has operated in a political vacuum without recognition of the long and problematic histories and cultural politics of urban environmental governance in Eastern and Southern Africa This book brings these cultural and political histories to the fore in its examination of the contemporary dynamics In doing so it not only provides an insightful analysis of the policies and outcomes for the SCP but also puts forward a historically grounded critique of neoliberalism good governance and sustainable development discourses

Achieving Environmental Justice Karen Bell, 2014-04-28 Environmental justice aspires to a healthy environment for all as well as fair and inclusive processes of environmental decision making In order to develop successful strategies to achieve this it is important to understand the factors that shape environmental justice outcomes This optimistic accessible and wide ranging book contributes to this understanding by assessing the extent of and reasons for environmental justice injustice in seven diverse countries United States Republic of Korea South Korea United Kingdom Sweden China Bolivia and Cuba Factors discussed include race and class discrimination citizen power industrialisation processes political economic context and the influence of dominant environmental discourses In particular the role of capitalism is critically explored Based on over a hundred interviews with politicians experts activists and citizens of these countries this is a compelling analysis aimed at all academics policy makers and campaigners who are engaged in thinking or action to address the most urgent environmental and social issues of our time

Land and Limits Richard Cowell, Susan Owens, 2005-07-05 In a new and critical analysis this book explores the impact of an influential idea sustainable development on the institutions and practices governing use of land It examines the paradox that in spite of increasing attention to sustainability land use conflict is as ubiquitous and intense as ever

Teenagers' Citizenship Susie Weller, 2007-04-11 The introduction of compulsory citizenship education into the national curriculum has generated a plethora of new interests in the politics of childhood and youth Citizenship for Teenagers explores teenagers acts of and engagement with citizenship in their local communities and examines the role of citizenship education in creating future responsible citizens The first half of the book provides the context for teenagers experiences of citizenship discussing issues around the ideas of childhood and citizenship as well as the curriculum The second half goes on to explore teenagers experiences of citizenship education practising citizenship and exclusion from citizenship The book concludes with a call for a new cumulative approach to citizenship which upgrades the status of teenagers particularly within the classroom Susie Weller's important book will throw new light on how teenagers engage with citizenship education and take on civic responsibility It is an interesting and useful read for all those involved with education and youth policy as well as those studying for a PGCE or researching in citizenship education

Planning for a Sustainable Future Sue Batty, Simin Davoudi, Antonia Layard, 2012-09-10 Sustainable Development is now firmly on the planning agenda and is an issue neither practitioner nor academic can afford to ignore Planning for a Sustainable Future provides a multi disciplinary overview of sustainability issues in the land use context focusing on principles and their application the legal political and policy context and the implication of sustainable development thinking for housing urban design and property development as well as waste and transport The book concludes by considering how sustainable and unsustainable impacts alike can be measured and modelled providing real tools to move beyond rhetoric into practice

Environmental Social Work Mel Gray, John Coates, Tiani Hetherington, 2013 Divided into three parts this field defining work explores what environmental social work is and how it can be put into practice It focuses on theory discussing ecological and social justice as well as sustainability spirituality and human rights

Citizen Science Susanne Hecker, Muki Haklay, Anne Bowser, Zen Makuch, Johannes Vogel, Aletta Bonn, 2018-10-15 Citizen science the active participation of the public in scientific research projects is a rapidly expanding field in open science and open innovation It provides an integrated model of public knowledge production and engagement with science As a growing worldwide phenomenon it is invigorated by evolving new technologies that connect people easily and effectively with the scientific community Catalysed by citizens wishes to be actively involved in scientific processes as a result of recent societal trends it also offers contributions to the rise in tertiary education In addition citizen science provides a valuable tool for citizens to play a more active role in sustainable development This book identifies and explains the role of citizen science within innovation in science and society and as a vibrant and productive science policy interface The scope of this volume is global geared towards identifying solutions and lessons to be applied across science practice and policy The chapters consider the role of citizen science in the context of the wider agenda of open science and open innovation and discuss progress towards responsible research and innovation two of the most critical aspects of science today
