Shaam-e-Awadh Veena Talwar Oldenburg, 2007-11-06 In 1528 the Mughal Sultanate conquered and formally incorporated Awadh as one of its constituent provinces With the decline of Mughal power the nawab vazirs of Awadh began to assert their independence After the East India Company appropriated half of Awadh as indemnity the then nawab Asaf ud Daulah moved his capital to Lucknow in 1775 A move that resulted in the growth of the city and its distinctive culture known as Lakhnavi tehzeeb Since then nawabi Lucknow has undergone enormous changes The refinement of pehle aap has all but disappeared Originally built to support a hundred thousand people amid palaces gardens and orchards the city now staggers under the burden of fifty times that number Its unchecked growth and collapsed civic amenities are slowly draining the life and beauty of this once vibrant city The rich and flamboyant culture has faded amidst the decay that has eaten into the fabric of the city and the corruption and treachery that permeate the government In separate pieces William Dalrymple and Barry Bearak trace the decline of Lucknow the city its architecture people politics governance and the sad end of the havelis and their once grandiose occupants The elegiac Marsia tradition of the Shias strives to be heard over angry chants of Hulla Bol of political rallies in Mrinal Pande's account of her visit to the city And in his hyperbolic saga of seven generations of the fictional Anglo Indian Trotter family I Allan Sealy meanders through two hundred years of Lucknow's chequered history

However despite the apparent disintegration Lucknow's ineffable spirit can still be found in the tantalizing flavours of Lakhnavi cuisine the delicate artistry of chikankari the legendary courtesans and the defiant voice of the rekhti the melodious notes of the ghazal and the thumri Engaging and thoughtful Shaam e Awadh Writings on Lucknow celebrates the unique character of this city of carnivals and calamities Postcolonial Urban Outcasts Madhurima Chakraborty, Umme Al-wazedi, 2016-10-14 Extending current scholarship on South Asian Urban and Literary Studies this volume examines the role of the discontents of the South Asian city The collection investigates how South Asian literature and literature about South Asia attends to urban margins regardless of whether the definition of margin is spatial psychological gendered or sociopolitical That cities are a site of profound paradoxes is nowhere clearer than in South Asia where urban areas simultaneously represent both the frontiers of globalization as well as the deeply troubling social and political inequalities of the global south Additionally because South Asian cities are defined by the palimpsestic confluence of among other things colonial oppression anticolonial nationalism postcolonial governance and twenty first century transnational capital they are sites where the many faces of empowerment and disempowerment are elaborated The volume brings together essays that emphasize myriad critical approaches geospatial urban theoretical diasporic subaltern and others United in their critical empathy for urban outcasts the chapters respond to central questions such as What is the relationship between the politico economic narratives of globally emerging South Asian cities and the dispossessed How do South Asian cities stand in relationship to the nation and conversely how might South Asians in diaspora construct these cities within larger narratives of development globalization or as sources of authentic ethnic identities How is the very skeleton the space the territory of South Asian cities marked with and by exclusionary politics How do the aesthetic and formal choices undertaken by writers determine the potential for and limit to emancipation of urban outcasts from their oppressive circumstances Considering fiction nonfiction comics and genre fiction from India Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka literature from the twentieth and the twenty first century and works that are Anglophone and those that are in translation this book will be valuable to a range of disciplines Social City Sadan Jha, 2022-12-15 This book examines urban experience from the vantage point of the global South Drawing upon narratives coming from three key axes communities neighbourhoods and market places it lays bare the specificities of urban experience in contemporary Surat It discusses a host of issues including the ambiguity of urban experience its uncomfortable ties with frames of the capital and the politics of urban belonging that operate at multiple levels shaping the contours of urban society Musing on the subjectivities pertaining to the social and the spatial in a milieu of a fast transforming urban landscape of Surat Gujarat the book is an exploration of how people perceive and associate with their surroundings how they aspire how they stigmatise others the relation between the city and its migrants and castes and at a broader level between the capital and the city An important contribution to the study of cities the volume sheds light on how urban experience can be approached as a socially and spatially embedded concept It will be of great interest to scholars and

The Journal of Indian Writing in English ,2006 Disrupted City Manan Ahmed Asif,2024-10-22 A stunning history of Pakistan's cultural and intellectual capital from one of the preeminent scholars of South Asia Longlisted 2025 Cundill History Prize The city of Lahore was more than one thousand years old when it went through a violent schism As the South Asian subcontinent was partitioned in 1947 to gain freedom from Britain's colonial hold and the Islamic Republic of Pakistan was formed the city's large Hindu and Sikh populations were pushed toward India and an even larger Muslim refugee population settled in the city This was just the latest in a long history of the city's making and unmaking Over the centuries the city has kept a firm grip on the imagination of travelers poets writers and artists More recently it has been journalists who have been drawn to the city as a focal point for a nation that continues to grab international headlines For this book acclaimed historian Manan Ahmed Asif brings to life a diverse and vibrant world by walking the city again and again over the course of many years Along the way he joins Sufi study circles and architects doing restoration in the medieval parts of Lahore and speaks with a broad range of storytellers and historians To this Asif juxtaposes deep analysis of the city's centuries old literary culture noting how it reverberates among the people of Lahore today To understand modern Pakistan requires understanding its cultural capital and Disrupted City uses Lahore's cosmopolitan past and its fractured present to provide a critical lens to challenge the grand narratives of the Pakistani nation state and its national project of writing history Outlook ,2005

City of Lingerin Splendor John Blofeld,2001-05-01 In his early twenties John Blofeld spent what he describes as three exquisitely happy years in Peking during the era of the last emperor when the breathtaking greatness of China's ancient traditions was still everywhere evident Arriving in 1934 he found a city imbued with the atmosphere of the recent imperial past and haunted by the powerful spirit of the late Dowager Empress Tzu Hsi He entered a world of magnificent palaces and temples of the Forbidden City of lotus covered lakes and lush pleasure gardens of bustling bazaars and peaceful bathhouses and of flower houses with their beautiful young courtesans versed in the arts of pleasing men With a novelist's command of detail and dialogue Blofeld vividly re creates the magic of these years and conveys to the reader his appreciation and nostalgia for a way of life long vanished
