Garcilazo, 2007 This book focuses on the controversy recorded in 1 Corinthians 15 regarding the denial of the resurrection of the dead Many attempts and proposals have been made to understand the background of Paul's opponents By focusing on the possible impact of Stoicism Albert V. Garcilazo argues that the internal evidence of the letter indicates that some of the Corinthians had adopted a realized eschatology as well as an antisomatic view of the resurrection which in turn prompted them to reject the future resurrection of the dead Garcilazo suggests that the higher status members of the congregation were influenced by the cosmological anthropological and ethical teachings of the Stoa especially the tenets of the Roman Stoics He demonstrates this possibility by first considering the similarities between the doctrines of the Corinthian dissenters and the teachings of the Stoic philosophers particularly the teachings of Seneca Following a brief overview of Stoicism the author concentrates on some of the theological issues revealed in the letter and examines how other scholars have interpreted 1 Corinthians 15 Finally he provides a detailed analysis of 1 Corinthians 15 12-49 In short Garcilazo argues that the philosophy of the Stoics seemingly contributed to the resurrection controversy recorded in 1 Corinthians 15

The Wisdom of the Wise H. Drake Williams, III, 2018-06-19 Paul's Jewish background and his use of Scripture have been enduring interest within New Testament scholarship This study contributes to this discussion by examining the presence and function of Scripture in I Cor 1 18 3 23 The author examines the presence and function of Scripture in the form of six citations two allusions and seven echoes within I Cor 1 19 3 23 From the examination of the function of these texts this work concludes that Paul's use of Scripture agrees with its original context and stands in line with a majority of early Jewish tradition Moreover this study suggests that Paul's use of Scripture also helps to chart a way through a difficult section of his writing
