Di Leo, 2023-06-15 The most exhaustive mapping of contemporary literary theory to date this book offers a comprehensive overview of the current state of the field of contemporary literary theory Examining 75 key topics across 15 chapters it provides an approachable and encyclopedic introduction to the most important areas of contemporary theory today Proceeding broadly chronologically from early theory all the way through to postcritique Di Leo masterfully unpacks established topics such as psychoanalysis structuralism and Marxism as well as newer topics such as trans theory animal studies disability studies blue humanities speculative realism and many more Featuring accessible discussion of the work of foundational theorists such as Lacan Derrida and Freud as well as contemporary theorists such as Haraway Braidotti and Hayles it offers a magisterial examination of an enormously rich and varied body of work

The structure of modern cultural theory Thomas Osborne, 2013-07-19 This book is about the claims of Cultural Theory as a particular kind of intellectual ethos or discipline The book argues that Cultural Theory is best seen at least in its modern form as an ethical discipline As such it should be seen as a form of inquiry governed by the guiding idea of the cultivation of critical autonomy and as such is designed as much to change what we are in our relations to ourselves as to describe the world as it is in particular positive ways The content of the book develops this argument through critical readings of three canonical writers namely Theodor Adorno Michel Foucault and Pierre Bourdieu A final chapter contrasts the ethical idea of modern Cultural Theory developed here with its postmodern derivations which it is argued have taken both a more positivist and even more moralistic form
