

The background of the book cover is a dark, atmospheric image of a night sky. It features a multi-engine bomber aircraft, likely a B-29, flying towards the right. The sky is filled with numerous bright, glowing white lines and streaks that resemble lightning or the paths of falling bombs, creating a sense of intense action and conflict. The overall color palette is dominated by dark greys and blacks, with the bright white light trails providing a stark contrast.

Culture In Camouflage War Empire And Modern British Literature:

Culture in Camouflage Patrick Deer, 2009-03-26 Examines how literary writers including Ford Madox Ford Siegfried Sassoon Wilfred Owen James Hanley Evelyn Waugh Graham Greene and others countered the war culture promoted by mass media war planners and military historians

Culture in Camouflage Patrick Deer, 2009 The British state and war machine struggled to produce a fully modernized and persuasive war culture in two world wars by freely cannibalizing art and literature Deer explores writers attempts to find their perspectives on the action in the face of the violence and alienation of total war and an overpowering official war culture

The Literature of Absolute War

Nil Santiáñez, 2020-05-28 This book explores for the first time the literature of absolute war in connection to World War II From a transnational and comparative standpoint it addresses a set of theoretical historical and literary questions shedding new light on the nature of absolute war the literature on the world war of 1939 45 and modern war writing in general It determines the main features of the language of absolute war and how it gravitates around fundamental semantic clusters such as the horror terror and the specter The Literature of Absolute War studies the variegated responses given by literary authors to the extreme and seemingly unsolvable challenges posed by absolute war to epistemology ethics and language It also delves into the different poetics that articulate the writing on absolute war placing special emphasis on four literary practices traditional realism traumatic realism the fantastic and catastrophic modernism

British Literature in Transition, 1940-1960: Postwar Gill Plain, 2019 Examines debates central to postwar British culture showing the pressures of reconstruction and the mutual implication of war and peace

Modernism, War, and Violence

Marina MacKay, 2017-05-18 The modernist period was an era of world war and violent revolution Covering a wide range of authors from Joseph Conrad and Thomas Hardy at the beginning of the period to Elizabeth Bowen and Samuel Beckett at the end this book situates modernism s extraordinary literary achievements in their contexts of historical violence while surveying the ways in which the relationships between modernism and conflict have been understood by readers and critics over the past fifty years Ranging from the colonial conflicts of the late 19th century to the world wars and the civil wars in between and concluding with the institutionalization of modernism in the Cold War Modernism War and Violence provides a starting point for readers who are new to these topics and offers a comprehensive and up to date survey of the field for a more advanced audience

Bloomsbury, Beasts and British Modernist Literature Derek Ryan, 2022-12-15 Argues that the Bloomsbury group s fascination with beasts was integral to their exploration of imperialism race gender sexuality and technology

The 1940s: A Decade of Modern British Fiction Philip Tew, Glyn White, 2022-02-24 How did social cultural and political events concerning Britain during the 1940s reshape modern British fiction During the Second World War and in its aftermath British literature experienced and recorded drastic and decisive changes to old certainties Moving from potential invasion and defeat to victory the creation of the welfare state and a new Cold war threat the pace of historical change seemed too rapid and monumental for writers to match Consequently the 1940s were often side lined in literary accounts as a dividing line between periods and styles Drawing on more recent scholarship and research this volume surveys and analyses this period s fascinating diversity from novels of the Blitz and the Navy to the rise of important new voices with its contributors exploring the work of influential women Commonwealth exiled genre avant garde and queer writers A major critical re evaluation of the intriguing decade this book offers substantial chapters on Elizabeth Bowen Graham Greene and George Orwell as well as covering such writers as Jocelyn Brooke Monica Dickens James Hadley Chase Patrick Hamilton Gerald Kersh Daphne Du Maurier Mary Renault Denton Welch and many others

A Revolution in Rhyme Fatemeh Shams,2021 A Revolution in Rhyme Poetic Co option under the Islamic Republic tells the story of the lives and works of Iranian poets whose personal and literary career were shaped by the Iranian revolution in 1979 By drawing on similar examples such as Soviet Russia the book tries to tackle some key questions how did these poets come to be known in the literary scene What did they write about and what were their ideas styles and literary techniques And last but not least what kind of relationship have they established with the ruling power on the course of the past four decades In a detailed study Shams tackles the life and work of ten Iranian poets whose personal and literary lives transformed and were transformed by the 1979 Revolution and the rise of the Islamic Republic shedding light on ways in which the current ruling state in Iran uses literature and particularly poetry as a tool for ideological dissemination

Film and the End of Empire Lee Grieveson,Colin MacCabe,2019-07-25 In these two volumes of original essays scholars from around the world address the history of British colonial cinema stretching from the emergence of cinema at the height of imperialism to moments of decolonization andthe ending of formal imperialism in the post Second World War

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell,Deborah Lindsay Williams,2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public s attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States
