Situational Analysis in Practice Adele E. Rights, Cultures, Subjects and Citizens Susanne Brandtstädter, Peter Wade, Kath Woodward, 2013-09-13 This book questions the political logic of foregrounding cultural collectives in a world shaped by globalization and neoliberalization Throughout the world it is no longer only individuals but increasingly collective cultures who are made responsible for their own regulation welfare and enterprise This appears as a surprising shift from the tenets of classical liberalism which defined the ideal subject of politics as the unencumbered self the free equal and self governing individual The increasing promotion and recognition of cultural rights in international legislation multiculturalism and public debates on culture as a political problem more generally indicate that culture has become a more central terrain for governance and struggles around rights and citizenship On the basis of case studies from China Latin America and North America the contributors of this book explore the links between culture civility and the politics of citizenship They argue that official reifications of culture in relation to citizenship and even the recognition of cultural rights may obey strategies of governance and control but that citizens may still use new cultural rights and networks and the legal mechanisms that have been created to protect them in order to pursue their own agendas of empowerment This book was originally published as a special issue of Economy and Society Domestic Violence at the Margins Natalie J. Sokoloff, Christina Pratt, 2005 Reprints of the most influential recent work in the field as well as more than a dozen newly commissioned essays explore theoretical issues current research service provision and activism among Latinos African Americans Asian Americans Jewish Americans and lesbians The volume rejects simplistic analyses of the role of culture in domestic violence by elucidating the support systems available to battered women within different cultures while at the same time addressing the distinct problems generated by that culture Together the essays pose a compelling challenge to stereotypical images of battered women that are racist homophobic and xenophobic Beyond Solidarity Giles

Gunn, 2001-06 Beyond Solidarity is an impassioned argument for a sharable morality in a world increasingly fractured along lines of difference Giles Gunn asks how human solidarity can be reconceived when its expressions have become increasingly exceptionalist and outmoded and when the pressures of globalization divide as much as they unify He finds the terms for answering these questions in a more inclusive cosmopolitan pragmatism one willing to explore fundamental values without recourse to absolutist arguments Drawing on the work of William and Henry James John Dewey Primo Levi Richard Rorty and many others as well as postcolonial writing Jewish literature of the Holocaust and the cultural and religious experience of African Americans in slavery Gunn points pragmatism in a transnational direction and shows how it can better account for the consequences of diversity Beyond Solidarity then is a study of the difference that difference makes in a globalized world

Entangled Subjects Michèle Grossman, 2013 Indigenous Australian cultures were long known to the world mainly from the writing of anthropologists ethnographers historians missionaries and others Indigenous Australians themselves have worked across a range of genres to challenge and reconfigure this textual legacy so that they are now strongly represented through their own life narratives of identity history politics and culture Even as Indigenous authored texts have opened up new horizons of engagement with Aboriginal knowledge and representation however the textual politics of some of these narratives particularly when cross culturally produced or edited can remain haunted by colonially grounded assumptions about orality and literacy Through an examination of key moments in the theorizing of orality and literacy and key texts in cross culturally produced Indigenous life writing Entangled Subjects explores how some of these works can sustain rather than trouble the frontier zone established by modernity in relation to talk and text Yet contemporary Indigenous vernaculars offer radical new approaches to how we might move beyond the orality literacy frontier and how modernity and the a modern are Productively entangled in the process Situational Analysis Adele E. Clarke, Carrie Friese, Rachel S.

Washburn, 2017-07-20 The Second Edition offers an innovative extension of grounded theory useful in qualitative research projects that draws on interviews observations and visual narrative and historical discourse materials To engage the dense complexities of real world situations Situational Analysis SA braids together Strauss's ecological social worlds arenas theory Foucault's discourse analysis and Deleuze and Guattari's rhizomes and assemblages The book will serve as an invaluable resource for advanced undergraduate and graduate level students as well as professional researchers and consultants from diverse backgrounds pursuing qualitative projects
