Dementia Living In The Memories Of God:

Dementia John Swinton, 2012 Offering compassionate and carefully considered theological and pastoral responses to dementia and forgetfulness John Swinton redefines dementia in light of the transformative counter story that is the gospel

Dementia John Swinton, 2014-05-14 Dementia is one of the most feared diseases in Western society today Some have even gone so far as to suggest euthanasia as a solution to the perceived indignity of memory loss and the disorientation that accompanies it In this book John Swinton develops a practical theology of dementia for caregivers people with dementia ministers hospital chaplains and medical practitioners as he explores two primary questions Who am I when I've forgotten who I am What does it mean to love God and be loved by God when I have forgotten who God is Offering compassionate and carefully considered theological and pastoral responses to dementia and forgetfulness Swinton's Dementia Living in the Memories of God redefines dementia in light of the transformative counter story that is the gospel

Theology, Disability and Sport Nick J. Watson, Kevin Hargaden, Brian Brock, 2020-01-24 This ground breaking book provides fascinating insights into the fast emerging body of research that explores the relationship between sport theology and disability within a social justice framework In the shadow of two major sport faith events that fore fronted the theology of disability sport the Vatican s international conference Sport at the Service of Humanity and the Inaugural Global Congress on Sports and Christianity York St John University UK at which Dr Brian Brock led a thematic strand on the topic this book provides a foundation for further research and practice This text is a timely and important synthesis of ideas that have emerged in two previously distinct areas of research i disability sport and ii the theology of disability Examples of subjects addressed in this text include elite physical disability sport Paralympics intellectual disability sport Special Olympics equestrian sport church sport and disability and theologies of embodiment competition and mercy This book written by leaders in their respective fields begins a critical conversation on these topics and many others for both researchers and practitioners The chapters originally published in the Journal of Disability and Religion and Quest

Perspectives on Spiritual Intelligence Marius Dorobantu, Fraser Watts, 2024-07-29 The topic of intelligence involves questions that cut deep into ultimate concerns and human identity and the study of intelligence is an ideal ground for dialogue between science and religion This volume investigates the notion of spiritual intelligence from a variety of perspectives bringing together contributions from theology computer science linguistics psychology biology and cognitive science It defines spiritual intelligence as processing things differently not processing different things and aims to describe it in naturalistic terms Spiritual intelligence is not regarded as a separate mental module or a magical ability to interact with the supernatural but rather as a specific more spiritual way of engagement with reality which has observable cognitive phenomenal and linguistic characteristics The book is valuable reading for those working at the interface between science and spirituality

The Other Journal: Health Andrew Shutes-David, 2019-10-04 The Other Journal is a space for Christian interdisciplinary theological reflection that tackles the cultural crises of our time with verve and peculiar slant advancing a progressive provocative and charitable response in sync with the peacefully contrarian Christ In this issue we address the theme of health by reading of a spouse who is emptied into the relentless repetition of caring for a dying husband We meet parents who wrestle with what it means to birth children and watch them grow And we learn that physical mental and spiritual health requires lending a hand to our fellow travelers just as Jesus extended his hands to us Our health issue features prose by Lucy Bryan Jason Byassee Michael Dean Clark Dave de la Fuente Lauren Frances Evans Elizabeth Felicetti Jonathan Hiskes Rachel Pieh Jones Jennifer Lamson Scribner Daniel Rempel Kate Roberts Jonathan Tran Mark C Watney and Rita Willett poetry by Susan Carlson Judith H Montgomery and Angela Alaimo O Donnell linocut prints by Kate Roberts and mixed media by Lauren Frances Evans

Introducing Christian Ethics Samuel Wells, Ben Quash, 2017-03-14 Introducing Christian Ethics 2e now thoroughly revised and updated offers an unparalleled introduction to the study of Christian Ethics mapping and exploring all the major ethical approaches and offering thoughtful insights into the complex moral challenges facing people today This highly successful text has been thoughtfully updated based on considerable feedback to include increased material on Catholic perspectives further case studies and the augmented use of introductions and summaries Uniquely redefines the field of Christian ethics along three strands universal ethics for anyone subversive ethics for the excluded and ecclesial ethics for the church Encompasses Christian ethics in its entirety offering students a substantial overview by re mapping the field and exploring the differences in various ethical approaches Provides a successful balance between description analysis and critique Structured so that it can be used alongside a companion volume Christian Ethics An Introductory Reader which further illustrates and amplifies the diversity of material and arguments explored here

Pastoral Care and Counseling Helsel, Philip Browning, 2019 Addresses the critique that pastoral care is indistinguishable from secular psychotherapy by placing a person's relationship to God at the center of pastoral care The Pastor as Friend? Dan Holder, 2025-01-23 Have you ever wondered what it means for pastors to be friends with people in their churches This is the fascinating question that Dan Holder dives into in this thought provoking book He uses in depth interviews with ordained pastors and their real life struggles and joys to get close to the essence of what friendship and friendliness mean in the pastoral setting Reflecting theologically on the findings and grappling with the thought and experience of figures such as Bonhoeffer Moltmann and C S Lewis he takes up in detail the four elements found to be essential to friendship mutuality affection freedom and openness Then envisioning what revised forms of practice for pastors in a local congregation might look like he formulates nine themes for a fruitful approach to pastoral friendship Holder doesn't shy away from the tough questions or try to offer easy answers Instead he invites readers into a nuanced thoughtful exploration of the topic one that acknowledges both the potential pitfalls and the profound opportunities of these relationships Prepare to be inspired challenged and encouraged Who knows Readers may just discover a new vision for the role of friendship in their own lives and ministries
