New Perspectives in the Public and Cultural Sectors Calogero Guccio, Isidoro Mazza, Giacomo Pignataro, 2025-06-10 This book presents a unique collection of contributions on modern topics in applied public economics written by leading experts in the respective disciplines and their intersections from cultural economics to public choice It features contributions on fundamental methodological and empirical issues regarding the role and effects of public intervention in a broad range of fields such as cultural heritage creative industries regulation public procurement corruption tax evasion health economics and public goods The book was written in honor of Ilde Rizzo on the occasion of her retirement for her many contributions to applied public economics Given its scope it will appeal to researchers and PhD students who are interested in the latest developments in cultural and public economics

Decolonising Heritage in South Asia Himanshu Prabha Ray, 2018-09-05 This volume cross examines the stability of heritage as a concept It interrogates the past which materialises through multi layered narratives on monuments and other objects that sustain cultural diversity It seeks to understand how interpretations of monuments as texts are affected at the local level of experience even as institutions such as UNESCO work to globalise and fix constructs of stable and universal heritage Shifting away from a largely Eurocentric concept associated with architecture and monumental archaeology this book reassesses how local and regional heritage needs to be balanced with the global and transnational It argues that material objects and monuments are not static embodiments of culture but are rather a medium through which identity power and society are produced and reproduced This is especially relevant in South and Southeast Asian contexts where debates over heritage often have local regional and national political implications and consequences Reevaluating how traditional valuation of monuments and cultural landscapes could help aid sustainability and long term preservation of the heritage this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of South and Southeast Asian history heritage studies archaeology cultural studies tourism studies and political history as well

Munich Social Science Review (MSSR), Volume 5 Emanuela Macri,Valeria Morea,Michele Trimarchi,2022-03-04 Calling on the Community Jeroen Rodenberg,Pieter Wagenaar,Gert-Jan Burgers,2023-01-13 There is a call in Heritage Studies to democratize heritage practices and place local communities at the forefront heritage plays an important role in identity formation and therefore in social inclusion and exclusion Public participation is often presented as the primary means to prioritize communities However studies focusing on public participation are typically descriptive in nature and lack a strong analytical framework that enables us to understand participation The essays in this volume apply Public Administration theory to collaborative governance and thus contribute to a better understanding of public participation in the heritage sector Reconnecting the City Francesco Bandarin,Ron van Oers,2014-10-23 Historic Urban Landscape is a new approach to urban heritage management promoted by UNESCO and currently one of the most debated issues in the international preservation community However few conservation practitioners have a clear understanding of what it entails and more importantly what it can achieve Examples drawn from urban heritage sites worldwide from Timbuktu to Liverpool Richly illustrated with colour photographs Addresses key issues and best practice for urban conservation Governing Knowledge Commons Brett M. Frischmann,Michael J. Madison,Katherine J. Strandburg,2014-08-05 Knowledge commons describes the institutionalized community governance of the sharing and in some cases creation of information science knowledge data and other types of intellectual and cultural resources It is the subject of enormous recent interest and enthusiasm with respect to policymaking about innovation creative production and intellectual property Taking that enthusiasm as its starting point Governing Knowledge Commons argues that policymaking should be based on evidence and a deeper understanding of what makes commons institutions work It offers a systematic way to study knowledge commons borrowing and building on Elinor Ostrom's Nobel Prize winning research on natural resource commons It proposes a framework for studying knowledge commons that is adapted to the unique attributes of knowledge and information describing the framework in detail and explaining how to put it into context both with respect to commons research and with respect to innovation and information policy Eleven detailed case studies apply and discuss the framework exploring knowledge commons across a wide variety of scientific and cultural domains New Metropolitan Perspectives Francesco Calabrò, Lucia Della Spina, María José Piñeira Mantiñán, 2022-08-24 The book aims to face the challenge of post COVID 19 dynamics toward green and digital transition between metropolitan and return to villages perspectives It presents a multi disciplinary scientific debate on the new frontiers of strategic and spatial planning economic programs and decision support tools within the urban rural areas networks and the metropolitan cities The book focuses on six topics inner and marginalized areas local development to re balance territorial inequalities knowledge and innovation ecosystem for urban regeneration and resilience metropolitan cities and territorial dynamics rules governance economy society green buildings post carbon city and ecosystem services infrastructures and spatial information systems cultural heritage conservation enhancement and management In addition the book hosts a Special Section Rhegion United Nations 2020 2030 The book will benefit all researchers practitioners and policymakers interested in the issues applied to metropolitan cities and marginal areas Governing Medical Knowledge Commons Brett M. Frischmann, Katherine J. Strandburg, Michael J. Madison, 2017-10-19 This book collects fifteen new case studies documenting successful knowledge and information sharing commons institutions for medical and health sciences innovation Also available as Open Access
