Cultural Struggles Performance Ethnography Praxis:

Cultural Struggles Dwight Conquergood, 2013-05-22 Gathers the essential essays of Dwight Conquergood performance studies scholar ethnographer and activist     Routledge International Handbook of Critical Gang Studies David Brotherton, Rafael Gude, 2021-07-28 Routledge International Handbook of Critical Gang Studies is rooted in the instability inequality and liquidity of the post industrial era It understands the gang as a complex and contradictory phenomenon a socio historical agent that reflects responds to and creates a certain structured environment in spaces which are always in flux International in scope and drawing on a range of sociological criminological and anthropological traditions it looks beyond pathological ahistorical and non transformative approaches and considers other important factors that produce the phenomenon whether the historically entrenched racialized power structure and segregation in Chicago the unconstrained state abandoned development of favelas in Brazil or the colonization displacement and dependency of people in Central America This handbook reflects and defines the new theoretical and empirical traditions of critical gang studies It offers a variety of perspectives including A view of gangs that takes into consideration the global context and appearance of the gang in its various forms and stages of development An appreciation of the gang as a socio cultural formation A race ethnic and class analysis of the gang that problematizes domain assumptions such as the underclass Gender variations of the gang phenomenon with a particular emphasis on their intersectional properties Relations between gangs and the political economy that address the dominant mode of production and exchange Treatments that demonstrate the historically contingent nature of gangs and their changes across time The contradictory impact of gang repressive policies institutions and practices as part of a broader discussion on the nature of the state in specific societies and Critical methodologies on gangs that involve discussions of visual and textual representations and the problematics of data collection and analysis Authoritative multi disciplinary and international this book will be of interest to criminologists sociologists and anthropologists alike particularly those engaged with critical criminology sociology youth crime delinquency and global social inequality The Handbook will also be of interest to policy makers and those in the peacebuilding field     Performance Autoethnography Norman K. Denzin, 2018-04-20 This book is a manifesto It is about rethinking performance autoethnography about the formation of a critical performative cultural politics about what happens when everything is already performative when the dividing line between performativity and performance disappears This is a book about the writing called autoethnography It is also about what this form of writing means for writers who want to perform work that leads to social justice Denzin s goal is to take the reader through the history major terms forms criticisms and issues confronting performance autoethnography and critical interpretive To that end many of the chapters are written as performance texts as ethnodramas A single thesis organizes this book the performance turn has been taken in the human disciplines and it must be taken seriously Multiple informative performance models are discussed Goffman s dramaturgy Turner s performance anthropology performance ethnographies by

A D Smith Conquergood and Madison Saldana's ethnodramas Schechter's social theatre Norris's playacting Boal's theatre of the oppressed and Freire's pedagogies of the oppressed They represent different ways of staging and hence performing ethnography resistance and critical pedagogy They represent different ways of imagining and inventing and hence performing alternative imaginaries alternative counter performances to war violence and the globalized corporate empire Schechner 2015 This book provides a systematic treatment of the origins goals concepts genres methods aesthetics ethics and truth conditions of critical performance autoethnography Denzin uses the performance text as a vehicle for taking up the hard questions about reading writing performing and doing critical work that makes a difference

Theory for Ethnomusicology Harris Berger, Ruth Stone, 2019-05-31 Theory for Ethnomusicology Histories Conversations Insights Second Edition is a foundational work for courses in ethnomusicological theory The book examines key intellectual movements and topic areas in social and cultural theory and explores the way they have been taken up in ethnomusicological research New co author Harris M Berger and Ruth M Stone investigate the discipline's past present and future reflecting on contemporary concerns while cataloging significant developments since the publication of the first edition in 2008 A dozen contributors approach a broad range of theoretical topics alive in ethnomusicology Each chapter examines ethnographic and historical works from within ethnomusicology showcasing the unique contributions scholars in the field have made to wider transdisciplinary dialogs while illuminating the field's relevance and pointing the way toward new horizons of research New to this edition Every chapter in the book is completely new with richer and more comprehensive discussions New chapters have been added on gender and sexuality sound and voice studies performance and critical improvisation studies and theories of participation New text boxes and notes make connections among the chapters emphasizing points of contact and conflict among intellectual movements

The Performative Power of Vocality Virginie Magnat, 2019-12-06 The Performative Power of Vocality offers a fresh perspective on voice as a subject of critical inquiry by employing an interdisciplinary and cross cultural approach Conventional treatment of voice in theatre and performance studies too often regards it as a subcategory of actor training associated with the established methods that have shaped voice pedagogy within Western theatre schools conservatories and universities This monograph significantly deviates from these dominant models through its investigation of the non discursive material and affective efficacy of vocality with a focus on orally transmitted vocal traditions Drawing from her performance training research collaborations and commitment to cultural diversity Magnat proposes a dialogical approach to vocality Inclusive of established current and emerging research perspectives this approach sheds light on the role of vocality as a vital source of embodied knowledge creativity and well being grounded in process practice and place as well as a form of social and political agency An excellent resource for qualitative researchers artist scholars and activists committed to decolonization cultural revitalization and social justice this book opens up new avenues of understanding across Indigenous and Western philosophy performance studies musicology ethnomusicology sound and voice

Reconstructing Southern Rhetoric Christina L. Moss, Brandon Inabinet, 2021-11-01 Contributions by Whitney Jordan Adams Wendy Atkins Sayre Jason Edward Black Patricia G Davis Cassidy D Ellis Megan Fitzmaurice Michael L Forst Jeremy R Grossman Cynthia P King Julia M Medhurst Ryan Neville Shepard Jonathan M Smith Ashli Quesinberry Stokes Dave Tell and Carolyn Walcott Southern rhetoric is communication's oldest regional study During its initial invention the discipline was founded to justify the study of rhetoric in a field of white male scholars analyzing significant speeches by other white men yielding research that added to myths of Lost Cause ideology and a uniquely oratorical culture Reconstructing Southern Rhetoric takes on the much overdue task of reconstructing the way southern rhetoric has been viewed and critiqued within the communication discipline The collection reveals that southern rhetoric is fluid and migrates beyond geography is constructed in weak counterpublic formation against legitimated power creates a region that is not monolithic and warrants activism and healing Contributors to the volume examine such topics as political campaign strategies memorial and museum experiences television and music influences commemoration protests and ethnographic experiences in the South The essays cohesively illustrate southern identity as manifested in various contexts and ways considering what it means to be a part of a region riddled with slavery Jim Crow laws and other expressions of racial and cultural hierarchy Ultimately the volume initiates a new conversation asking what southern rhetorical critique would be like if it included the richness of the southern culture from which it came

Performing Wales Lisa Lewis, 2018-05-15 This book uses ideas from performance studies to examine Welsh culture as performance Focusing on three aspects central to the investigation notions of people memory and place all of which are central to definitions of Welsh cultural performance the book explores these aspects in relation to specific case studies taken from the museum from heritage festival and theatre

Queer Intercultural Communication Shinsuke Eguchi, Bernadette Calafell, 2019-10-01 Queer Intercultural Communication helps to expand the field of queer studies to consider cultural difference and how it affects everyday communication across the globe Authoritative essays present cases of LGBTQ people in and across race ethnicity gender culture nation and bodies

Becoming Earth Anne Reinertsen, 2016-03-22 Becoming earth is about how we can write and tell stories in a way that allows us to collaborate and be stewards and partners of the natural world our earth rather than dominators of it That is what this assemblage is about about trying to take seriously the minor politics of sensing experimenting with questions of attending and attuning to difference contestation nomadism relationality and permeability in sensing cultivating muchness newness communities of acceptance and decision making Going beyond the binaries dualisms instrumentalist criteria etc and supplying third space conceptions of agency not tied to human action alone but rather examining human and more than human relational assemblages of affecting and being affected The tasks for educators becoming not merely people who pass on traditions institutions systems and or structures but prepare for future contingent events ultimately creates vital pedagogies of many prospects in our classrooms and exceeds forms of contracts between generations These are embodied ecologies and or enacting ecologies in practice showing the practical and political strength of new materialisms and presenting its potential and usefulness to simultaneously work and analyse local and global political strategies and sustainability Making virtuality productive as a form of life our wonderings are thus always stronger than our assertions The sometimes fierce stories in this book might light some paths

The Routledge Companion to Transnational American Studies Nina Morgan, Alfred Hornung, Takayuki Tatsumi, 2019-04-05 The Routledge Companion to Transnational American Studies provides scholars and students of American Studies with theoretical and applied essays that help to define Transnational American Studies as a discipline and practice In more than 30 essays the volume offers a history of the concept of the transnational and takes readers from the Barbary frontier to Guam from Mexico's border crossings to the intifada's contested zones Together the essays develop new ways for Americanists to read events images sound literature identity film politics or performance transnationally through the work of diverse figures such as Confucius Edward Said Pauline Hopkins Poe Faulkner Michael Jackson Onoto Watanna and others This timely volume also addresses presidential politics and inter pictorial US history from Lincoln in Africa to Obama and Mandela to Trump The essays written by prominent global Americanists as well as the emerging scholars shaping the field seek to provide foundational resources as well as experimental and forward leaning approaches to Transnational American Studies
