Cultural Transformation And Human Rights In Africa:

Cultural Transformation and Human Rights in Africa Abdullahi A. An-Na'im, 2002-10-11 Cultural Transformation and Human Rights in Africa clarifies what should constitute human rights and strategies for their realization in an African context The book argues for the local promotion of what should be universal human rights through processes of cultural transformation over time While acknowledging the tensions between local cultures and the notion of universal human rights the contributors argue that these issues can be addressed via creative possibilities within specific countries

Human Rights in Africa Bonny Ibhawoh, 2018-01-25 An interpretative history of human rights in Africa exploring indigenous rights traditions anti slavery anti colonialism post colonial violations and pro democracy movements

Women, Law and Human Rights Fareda Banda, 2005-10-04 Africa with its mix of statute custom and religion is at the centre of the debate about law and its impact on gender relations This is because of the centrality of the gender question and its impact on the cultural relativism debate within human rights It is therefore important to examine critically the role of law broadly constructed in African societies The book focuses on women s experiences in the family This is because the lives of women continue to be lived out largely in the private domain where the right to privacy is used to conceal unequal treatment of women which is justified by invoking custom and tradition The book shows how law and its interpretation is used to disenfranchise women resulting in their being deprived of land and other property which they may have helped to accumulate It also considers issues of violence within the home reproductive rights and examines the issue of female genital cutting The role of women in development is explored as is their participation in politics and the NGO sector A major theme of the book is a consideration of the linkages of constitutional and international human rights norms with local values This is done using feminist tools of analysis The book considers the provisions of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and People s Rights on the Rights of Women which was adopted by the African Union in July 2003

Exploring African approaches to international law: Essays in honour of Kéba Mbaye Frans Viljoen, Humphrey Sipalla , Foluso Adegalu, 2022-10-04 It is unfortunate that the idea that Africa contributes to international law and has always done so remains in 2022 largely a side note an auxiliary approach rather than something widely accepted and deeply entrenched It is cause for pause that this is also true in Africa itself Exploring African approaches to international law Essays in honour of K ba Mbaye is a volume of essays that aims to contribute to a larger effort of imagining what possible approaches to international law Africa has adopted in the decades since the 1960s It also recognises the legacy of the great Senegalese jurist K ba Mbaye Edited by Frans Viljoen Humphrey Sipalla and Foluso Adegalu the volume is divided into five broad thematic parts and comprises eleven chapters It covers the following themes K ba Mbaye in African approaches to international law international legal theory international human rights law international environmental and criminal law and teaching of international law This publication finds its origins in the 2017 Roundtable on African approaches to international law held at the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria The explorations at the Roundtable on the concept of an African approach to international law were taken further at the K ba Mbaye Conference on African approaches to international law held at the Senate Hall University of Pretoria in December 2018 This conference brought together around 80 students academics and members of civil society to address the many questions left unanswered by the death of Judge Mbaye arguably Africa s greatest international law jurist of his generation It provided a forum to continue discussions on African approaches to international human rights law building on but rethinking and vernacularising the Third World Approaches to International Law TWAIL approach The contributions to this publication flow from papers presented at the conference However the reflections in the book extend beyond K ba Mbaye as central figure The result is a broad treatment of various aspects of African approaches to international law by thirteen authors and co authors covering a wide range of generational geographic and thematic backgrounds and perspectives

The World Bank Legal Review, Volume 2: Law, Equity and Development The World Bank, 2006-12-31 The World Bank Legal Review is a publication for policy makers and their advisers attorneys and other professionals engaged in the field of international development It offers a combination of legal scholarship lessons from experience legal developments and recent research on the many ways in which the application of the law and the improvement of justice systems promote poverty reduction economic development and the rule of law In keeping with the theme of the World Development Report 2006 Equity and Development and following the success of the World Bank Group s Legal Forum on Law Equity and Development in December 2005 volume 2 of The World Bank Legal Review focuses on issues of equity and development The volume draws together some of the key ideas of the Legal Forum including articles by many of its distinguished participants and explores the role of equity in the development process highlighting how legal and regulatory frameworks and equitable justice systems can do much to level the playing field in the political economic and sociocultural domains as well as how they can reinforce existing inequalities Consistent with the interdisciplinary nature of this endeavour Law Equity and Development contains work by academics and practitioners in law criminal justice economics human rights social development cultural studies and anthropology

Human Rights in Africa Abdullahi Ahmed An-naim, Francis M. Deng, 2010-12-01 This powerful volume challenges the conventional view that the concept of human rights is peculiar to the West and therefore inherently alien to the non Western traditions of third world countries This book demonstrates that there is a contextual legitimacy for the concept of human rights Virginia A Leary and Jack Donnelly discuss the Western cultural origins of international human rights David Little Bassam Tibi and Ann Elizabeth Mayer explore Christian and Islamic perspectives on human rights Rhoda E Howard Claude E Welch Jr and James C N Paul examine human rights in the context of the African nation state Kwasi Wiredu James Silk and Francis M Deng offer African cultural perspectives and Abdullahi Ahmed An Na im and Richard D Schwartz discuss prospects for a cross cultural approach to human rights

Human Rights & Gender Violence Sally Engle Merry, 2009-07-27 Human rights law and the legal protection of women from violence are still fairly new concepts As a result substantial discrepancies exist between what is decided in the halls of the United Nations and what women experience on a daily basis in their communities Human Rights and Gender Violence is an ambitious study that investigates the tensions between global law and local justice As an observer of UN diplomatic negotiations as well as the workings of grassroots feminist organizations in several countries Sally Engle Merry offers an insider's perspective on how human rights law holds authorities accountable for the protection of citizens even while reinforcing and expanding state power Providing legal and anthropological perspectives Merry contends that human rights law must be framed in local terms to be accepted and effective in altering existing social hierarchies Gender violence in particular she argues is rooted in deep cultural and religious beliefs so change is often vehemently resisted by the communities perpetrating the acts of aggression A much needed exploration of how local cultures appropriate and enact international human rights law this book will be of enormous value to students of gender studies and anthropology alike

Worlds of Human Rights Bill Derman, Anne Hellum, Kristin Sandvik, 2013-04-15 This book engages with contemporary African human rights struggles including land property gender equality and legal identity Through ethnographic field studies it situates claims making by groups and individuals that have been subject to injustices and abuses often due to different forms of displacement in specific geographical historical and political contexts Exploring local communities complexities and divided interests it addresses the ambiguities and tensions surrounding the processes whereby human rights have been incorporated into legislation social and economic programs legal advocacy land reform and humanitarian assistance It shows how existing relations of inequality domination and control are affected by the opportunities offered by emerging law and governance structures as a plurality of non state actors enter what previously was considered the sole regulatory domain of the nation state

Conservation of Natural and Cultural Heritage in Kenya Anne-Marie Deisser, Mugwima Njuguna, 2016-10-07 In Kenya cultural and natural heritage has a particular value Its pre historic heritage not only tells the story of man's origin and evolution but has also contributed to the understanding of the earth's history fossils and artefacts spanning over 27 million years have been discovered and conserved by the National Museums of Kenya NMK Alongside this the steady rise in the market value of African art has also affected Kenya Demand for African tribal art has surpassed that for antiquities of Roman Byzantine and Egyptian origin and in African countries currently experiencing conflicts this activity invariably attracts looters traffickers and criminal networks This book brings together essays by heritage experts from different backgrounds including conservation heritage management museum studies archaeology environment and social sciences architecture and landscape geography philosophy and economics to explore three key themes the underlying ethics practices and legal issues of heritage conservation the exploration of architectural and urban heritage of Nairobi and the natural heritage landscapes and sacred sites in relation to local Kenyan communities and tourism It thus provides an overview of conservation practices in Kenya from 2000 to 2015 and highlights the role of natural and cultural heritage as a key factor of social economic development and as a potential instrument for conflict resolution Research Handbook on the Politics of Human Rights Law Bård A. Andreassen, 2023-01-20 International human rights law is undoubtedly intertwined with politics and so this Research Handbook explores and provokes reflection on how politics impacts human rights legislation and conversely how human rights law shapes politics and the functioning of the state Bringing together leading international scholars in human rights law and politics the Research Handbook provides theoretical reflections and empirical analyses across the areas of governance and policies and examines the implementation mechanisms of human rights law in national and international jurisdictions
