Cairo Janet L. Abu-Lughod, 2018-12-04 1001 years as a continuous settlement 100 years as a modern city Cairo in the 1970s is a complex metropolis Janet Abu Lughod traces the social and demographic history of Cairo demonstrating the continuities and transformations that underlie the organization of today's city Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The African City Bill Freund, 2007-03-05 This book is comprehensive both in terms of time coverage from before the Pharaohs to the present moment and in that it tries to consider cities from the entire continent not just Sub Saharan Africa Apart from factual information and rich description material culled from many sources it looks at many issues from why urban life emerged in the first place to how present day African cities cope in difficult times Instead of seeing towns and cities as somehow extraneous to the real Africa it views them as an inherent part of developing Africa indigenous colonial and post colonial and emphasizes the extent to which the future of African society and African culture will likely be played out mostly in cities The book is written to appeal to students of history but equally to geographers planners sociologists and development specialists interested in urban problems

Divided City Kai Bird, 2010-07-08 Crossing Mandelbaum Gate is a vivid memoir of an American boy growing up in the midst of the Arab Israeli conflict three major wars and three decades of political upheavals in the Middle East Set in Jerusalem 1956 1958 Beirut 1970 Saudi Arabia 1962 1965 Amman and Cairo 1965 1967 Bird's book explains through a blend of memoir and history why the Western experience in the Middle East has been so turbulent Through Bird's Zelig like presence the reader experiences the Suez War of 1956 the June 1967 War and the Black September hijackings of 1970 that led to the Jordanian Civil War Bird's memoir shows how all of these momentous events led to the rise and tragic downfall of a secular Arab nationalist ethos only to be replaced by the rise of a fundamentalist politically reactionary Islamist movement The narrative history tells the stories of such illuminating figures as life long Jerusalem resident George Antonius author of The Arab Awakening and his charismatic wife Jordan's King Hussein and his CIA connections the businessman Salem bin Laden Osama's older brother and a family friend Saudi kings Faisal and Khalid President Nasser of Egypt and Leila Khaled the striking young Palestinian radical who hijacked one of the Black September planes The son of a U S Foreign Service officer Kai Bird spent his formative years with the Arabs but he ended up marrying the only daughter of two Holocaust survivors This Shoah survival story becomes a part of Bird's own personal narrative and provides him with a deeper understanding of the historical relationship between the destruction of European Jewry and the Arab Israeli conflict This extraordinary memoir by a Pulitzer prize winning historian sheds new light on all the wars of the Middle East fought in the name of identity Cairo Janet Abu-Lughod, 1971 The Changing Middle Eastern City G.H. Blake, R.I. Lawless, 2016-03-22 The Middle East defined here as extending from Morocco to Iran and Turkey to Sudan lies at the crossroads of three continents Africa Asia and Europe With the largest reserves of petroleum in the world its importance is well beyond its physical size and population Rapid urban growth has radically transformed Middle Eastern society in recent decades but the associated problems are incompletely understood This volume first published in 1980 highlights some of the major issues of Middle Eastern urbanisation and provides a comprehensive statement about the current position of research Urban origins and the nature of urban growth are discussed to provide a background to considerations of migration employment housing and retailing The contributors suggest that planning strategies have hitherto proved inadequate with small towns being largely overlooked historic quarters rapidly disappearing and water in short supply Future research into all these problem areas is considered essential but the research must be coordinated and utilised Concentrating on practical problems achievements and challenges for research the contributions in this book specially commissioned from active researchers in the field will prove a valuable guide to recent ideas and developments in the Middle East Sustainable Cities Revisited III - 7060iied International Institute for Environment & Development, 2000 Daily Life in the Medieval Islamic World James E. Lindsay, 2005-06-30 From the time of its birth in Mecca in the 7th century C E Islam and the Islamic world rapidly expanded outward extending to Spain and West Africa in the west and to Central Asia and the Indian Subcontinent in the east An examination of the daily life in these Islamic regions provides insight into a civilized powerful and economically stable culture where large metropolitan centers such as Damascus Baghdad and Cairo thrived in many areas including intellectual and scientific inquiry In contrast with medieval Europe there is little common knowledge in the West of the culture and history of this vibrant world as different from our own in terms of the political religious and social values it possessed as it is similar in terms of the underlying human situation that supports such values This book provides an intimate look into the daily life of the medieval Islamic world and is thus an invaluable resource for students and general readers alike interested in understanding this world so different and yet so connected to our own Chapters include discussions of the major themes of medieval Islamic history Arabia the world of Islamic origins warfare and politics the major cities of Damascus Baghdad and Cairo religious rituals and worship and a section on curious and entertaining information Author James E Lindsay further provides a focused look at the daily lives of urban Muslims during this time period and of their interactions with Jews Christians and other Muslims Timelines tables including a calendar conversion to align the Islamic lunar and the Christian solar dates and a dynastic table highlighting the major genealogies of the ancient ruling families a bibliography and a glossary of important dates and technical terms are also provided to assist the reader

Unfinished Places: The Politics of (Re)making Cairo's Old Quarters Gehan Selim, 2016-11-10 The Emerging Politics of Re making Cairo s Old Quarters examines postcolonial planning practices that aimed to modernise Cairo s urban spaces The author examines the expanding field of postcolonial urbanism by linking the state s political ideologies and systems of governance with methods of spatial representations that aimed to transform the urban realm in Cairo Adopting an interdisciplinary approach the study draws on planning history and politics to develop a distinctive account of postcolonial planning in Cairo following Egypt s 1952 revolution The book widely connects the ideological role of a different type of politicised urbanism practised during the days of Nasser Sadat and Mubarak and the overarching policies institutions and attitudes involved in the visions for re building a new nation in Egypt By examining the notion of remaking urban spaces the study interprets the ambitions and powers of state policies for improving the spatial qualities of Cairo s old districts since the early 20th century These acts are situated in their spatial political and historical contexts of Cairo s heterogeneous old quarters and urban spaces particularly the remaking of one of the city s older quarts named Bulaq Abul Ela established during the Ottoman rule in the thirteenth century It therefore writes in a chronological sequence a narrative through time and space connecting various layers of historical and contemporary political phases for remaking Bulaq The endeavor is to explain this process from a spatial perspective in terms of the implications and consequences not only on places but also on the people s everyday practices By deeply investigating the problems and consequences the strengths and weaknesses and the state s reliability to achieve the remaking objectives the book reveals evidence that shifting forms of governance had anchored planning practices into a narrow path of creativity and responsive planning
