China People Place Culture History:

People, Place, Race, and Nation in Xinjiang, China David O'Brien, Melissa Shani Brown, 2022-11-14 In one of the only works drawing on interviews with both Uyghurs and Han in Xinjiang China and postcolonial perspectives on ethnicity nation and race this book explores how forms of banal racism underpin ideas of self and other assimilation and modernisation in this restive region Significant international attention has condemned the CCP's use of forced internment in re education camps as well as its campaign of cultural assimilation In this wider context this book focuses upon the ways in which ethnic difference is writ through the banalities of everyday life who one trusts what one eats where one shops even what time one's clocks are set to Xinjiang being perhaps one of the only places where different ethnic groups live by different time zones Alongside chapters focusing upon the coercive re education campaign and the devastating Rumi Riots in 2009 this book also unpacks how discourses of Chinese nationalism romanticise empire and promote racialised ways of thinking about Chineseness how cultural assimilation Sinicisation is being justified through the rhetoric of modernisation how Islamic sites and Uyghur culture are being secularised and commodified for tourist consumption We also explore Uyghur and Han perspectives including of each other giving insight into the diversity of opinions within both groups Based on many years of living and working in China and fieldwork and interviews specifically in Xinjiang this book will be valuable to a variety of readers interested in the region and Uyghur and Han identity ethnic national identities in contemporary China and racisms in non western contexts country and many more But China is now too globally important to allow such oversimplifications to continue unchallenged and this engaging and deeply knowledgeable volume counters them vigorously In concise and accessible style the contributors scrutinize a range of historical misconceptions that have ramifications for the present and future of China and its relations with the rest of the world They consider how misunderstandings have arisen and present more sophisticated and nuanced interpretations Readers will learn how numerous popular beliefs about China s history are mistaken and what new interpretations can help build the more accurate understandings of present day China that we so badly need By explicitly addressing common misconceptions the book persuades readers to reexamine their assumptions about China s history and thus China in general and begin to see it as a real rather than largely imagined place Contributions by Elif Ak etin Bridie Andrews Tim Barrett Felix Boecking Michael C Brose Marjorie Dryburgh Imre Galambos Stanley E Henning Christian Hess Clara Wing chung Ho Judd Kinzley Fabio Lanza Peter Lorge Julia Lovell Rana Mitter Barbara Mittler Ruth Mostern Peter C Perdue Hai Ren Andres Rodriguez Tansen Sen Elliot Sperling Naomi Standen Wasana Wongsurawat and Ling Zhang
