Chinese Law And Religion Monitor 07 12 2011:

Chinese Law and Religion Monitor 07-12 / 2011 China Aid Association, 2011-12-31 China Aid Association which was founded in 2002 to draw international attention to China's gross human rights violations against house church Christians monitors and reports on religious freedom violations in China Drawing on a wide network of sources throughout the country ChinaAid issues frequent news releases on cases of religious persecution in China The Midland Texas based organization also assists victims of religious persecution to assert their rights and works to promote the rule of law in China ChinaAid has earned an international reputation as a reliable source of the most up to date information about religious persecution and the overall human rights situation in China ChinaAid founder and president Pastor Bob Fu has testified before many government and international organizations including various U S congressional committees the European Parliament and the U N Commission on Human Rights Annual Report United States. Congressional-Executive Commission on China, 2012

Christianity in Chinese Public Life: Religion, Society, and the Rule of Law J. Carpenter, K. den Dulk, 2014-01-27 This book analyzes the interaction of religion society and governance in China suggesting it is much more subtle and complex than common convention suggests The edited work addresses civic engagement religion Christianity and the rule of law in contemporary Chinese society Congressional-Executive Commission on China Annual Report 2012

Congressional-Executive Commission on China, 2012-11-05 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism Bruce Gordon, Carl R. Trueman, 2021 John Calvin was a leader of the European Reformation of the sixteenth century and the influence of his thought remains crucial in our world This collection explores the origins of Calvin's thought and the theological historical and cultural circumstances in which they have evolved from Geneva to our times Christian Values in Communist China Gerda Wielander, 2013-10-08 This book argues that as new political and social values are formed in post socialist China Christian values are becoming increasingly embedded in the new post socialist Chinese outlook It shows how although Christianity is viewed in China as a foreign religion promoted by Christian missionaries and as such at odds with the official position of the state Christianity as a source of social and political values rather than a faith requiring adherence to a church is in fact having a huge impact The book shows how these values inform both official and dissident ideology and provide a key underpinning of morality and ethics in the post socialist moral landscape Adopting a variety of different angles the book investigates the role Christian thought plays in the official discourse on morality and love and what contribution Chinese Christians make to charitable projects It analyses key Christian publications and dedicates two chapters to Christian intellectuals and their impact on political liberal thinking in China The concluding chapter highlights gender roles the role of the Chinese diaspora and the overlap of the government and Christian agenda in China today The book challenges commonly held views on contemporary Chinese Christianity as a movement in opposition to the state by showing the diversity and complexity of Christian thinking and the many factors influencing it Religion, Family, and Chinese

Youth Development Jerf W. K. Yeung, 2020-12-30 Religion is a fundamental cultural factor profoundly influential on human mental health and behavioural choices and in addition family is the most proximal and intimate socialization agent contributive to youth development Religion Family and Chinese Youth Development explores how religious involvement of Chinese parents affects their psychological health and family socialization which leads to various aspects of the development of Chinese youths Specifically a structural relationship between religion family socialization and youth development was constructed theoretically and tested empirically in the Chinese context which can portray the linked lives of religious involvement of Chinese parents parental psychological health family processes parenting practices the development of psychosocial maturity and the internalizing and externalizing outcomes of Chinese youths Undeniably the findings of this book provide insightful social and policy implications for researchers and human service practitioners related to Chinese societies By clearly depicting and empirically testing the connections between religion family and Chinese youth development the book can be a reference for clergy family practitioners researchers policy makers management of NGOs and graduate students of social sciences

Law and Politics of Religious Fraud Regulation Jianlin Chen, 2023-12-11 In comparing the ways in which China Taiwan and Hong Kong punish religious claims and practices considered by the state to be false or fraudulent Jianlin Chen presents a seminal contribution to the interdisciplinary study of religious freedom The book not only reveals how these legal tools sustain a hierarchy of religion but also the political dynamic behind the design and utilization of these legal tools

Political Theology in Chinese Society Joshua Mauldin, 2024-06-03 This book provides an itinerary for studying political theology in Chinese society including mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan It explores the changing role of religion in Chinese history from the rise of Buddhism alongside Confucianism and Daoism through the arrival of Christianity and Islam to the suppression of religion under communism Since the reform and opening period beginning in 1978 China has experienced a resurgence of religiosity with powerful societal implications Governing authorities have sought to regulate religious practice in line with their governing system Political theology in Chinese society is very much in flux and the chapters in this volume provide an array of windows through which to view the evolving reality They include historical approaches and descriptive analyses with an interdisciplinary and international range of perspectives by contributors based in and outside China The book will be of particular interest to scholars of theology religious studies and contemporary China studies
