The Chinese in Latin America and the Caribbean Walton Look Lai, Chee Beng Tan, 2010 The Chinese migration to the Latin America Caribbean region is an understudied dimension of the Asian American experience There are three distinct periods in the history of this migration the early colonial period pre 19th century when the profitable three century trade connection between Manila and Acapulco led to the first Asian migrations to Mexico and Peru the classic migration period 19th to early twentieth centuries marked by the coolie trade known to Chinese diaspora studies and the renewed immigration of the late 20th century to the present Written by specialists on the Chinese in Latin America and the Caribbean this book tells the story of Asian migration to the Americas and contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of the Chinese in this important part of the world

Chinese Encyclopaedias of New Global Knowledge (1870-1930) Milena Doleželová-Velingerová, Rudolf G Wagner, 2013-08-04 This is a set of pioneering studies on Chinese encyclopaedias of modern knowledge 1870 1930 At a transitional time when modern knowledge was sought after yet few modern schools were available these works were crucial sources of information for an entire generation This volume investigates many of these encyclopaedias which were never reprinted and are hardly known even to specialists for the first time The contributors to this collection all specialize in the period in question and have worked together for a number of years The resulting studies show that these encyclopaedias open a unique window onto the migration and ordering systems of knowledge across cultural and linguistic borders

Chinese Studies in the Netherlands , 2013-12-09 The Netherlands have a long and proud history in Chinese studies This volume collects not only articles that trace the historical development of Chinese studies in the Netherlands from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present and beyond but also studies that deal with Dutch research in specific disciplines within Chinese studies Chinese studies in the Netherlands originated from the needs of the Dutch colonial administration in the Dutch East Indies but developed a strong philological emphasis in the first part of the twentieth century to turn increasingly towards disciplinary research on modern and contemporary China in the last few decades Contributors include Leonard Bluss Maghiel van Crevel Barend ter Haar Albert Hoffst dt Wilt Idema Mark
