Family Therapy Techniques Jon Carlson, Len Sperry, Judith A. Lewis, 2013-01-11 Family Therapy Techniques briefly reviews the basic theories of marriage and family therapy It then goes into treatment models designed to facilitate the tailoring of therapy to specific populations and the integration of techniques from what often seems like disparate theories Based on the assumption that no single approach is the definitive approach for every situation the book leads students through multiple perspectives In teaching students to integrate and tailor techniques this book asks them to take functional methods and approaches from a variety of theoretical approaches without attempting to reiterate the theoretical issues and research covered in theories courses Counseling African American Marriages and Families Edward P. Wimberly, 1997-01-01 Important questions face any pastoral counselor when working with African American couples and families Edward Wimberly focuses on the religious worldview that African Americans bring to their understanding of marriage and family so that the counselor can learn the assumptions behind the presenting problems Wimberly's treatment examines the social context of African American families the separate issues for men and women intergenerational factors the impact of the life cycle sexuality affairs and abuse This wide ranging book is exceptionally practical for all pastoral caregivers The purpose of the Counseling and Pastoral Theology series is to address clinical issues that arise among particular populations currently neglected in the literature on pastoral care and counseling This series is committed to enhancing both the theoretical base and the clinical expertise of pastoral caregivers by providing a pastoral theological paradigm that will inform both assessment and intervention with persons in these specific populations
