Criminalization Of The State In Africa African Issues:

The Criminalization of the State in Africa Jean-François Bayart, Stephen Ellis, Béatrice Hibou, 1999 This text examines the growth of fraud and smuggling in African states the plundering of natural resources the privatization of state institutions the development of an economy of plunder and the growth of private armies It suggests that the state itself is becoming a vehicle for organized criminal activity Land Reforms and Natural Resource Conflicts in Africa Tukumbi

Lumumba-Kasongo, 2015-10-16 This book is a critical examination of the place and role of land in Africa the role of land in political formation and national identification and the land as an economic resource within both national economic development and liberal globalization Colonial and post colonial conflicts have been rooted in four related claims the struggle over scarce resources especially access to land resources abundance of natural resources mismanaged or appropriated by both the states local power systems and multinationals weak or absent articulated land tenure policies leading to speculation or hybrid policy framework and the imperatives of the global liberalization based on the free market principles to regulate the land question and mineral appropriation issue The actualization of these combined claims have led to conflicts among ethnic groups or between them and governments This book is not only about conflicts but also about local policy achievements that have been produced on the land question It provides a critical understanding of the forces and claims related to land tenure systems as part of the state policy and its system of governance Corruption as an Empty

Signifier Lucy Koechlin, 2013-05-23 Corruption as an Empty Signifier critically explores the ways in which corruption in Africa has been equated with African politics and political order and offers a novel approach to understanding corruption as a potentially emancipatory discourse of political transformation Undermining the State from Within Rachel A.

Schwartz, 2023-03-02 Illuminates how wartime institutional transformations undermine core state functions with legacies for political and economic development Globalization and the Southern African Economies Mats Lundahl, 2004 Focuses on the place of Southern Africa in the globalized economy Identifies the overall economic trends in the African continent and the responses required and actual to the impact of an increasingly interdependent world economy West Africa's Security Challenges Adekeye Adebajo, Ismail O. D. Rashid, 2004 Provides a context for understanding West Africa's security dilemmas highlighting the link between failures of economic development governance and democratization on the one hand and military insecurity and violent conflicts on the other Sorting Africa's Developmental Puzzle Almaz Zewde, 2010-06-02

Sorting Africa's Development Puzzle The Participatory Social Learning Theory as an Alternative Approach is a comprehensive exploration of why Africa has not managed to achieve a sustainable and self regenerating development over the past half century of effort The work situates the problems of Africa's persistent underdevelopment in the practices employed by national political elites donors and lenders to African development that played roles in determinant policy and planning Unlike many newly developed countries and regions and contrary to the historical experiences of developed countries where ordinary people were full stakeholders and drivers of development Africa's development has been top down expert and capital driven mechanical and typically externally designed Ordinary Africans were made marginal to development This approach to Africa's development was devoid of building the people and their institutions as the legitimate means of development The entrusting of Africa's development to local and international elites to the exclusion of the people from decision making and full participation has led to grievous deficits in the formation of human and social capital and legitimate economic social and political institutions for development The book offers a studied alternative that can positively change Africa's development direction The Participatory Social Learning Approach The philosophical theoretical historical and heuristic origins of this alternative are offered in detail within this book An Introduction to African Politics Alex Thomson, 2005-02-28 An Introduction to African Politics is the ideal textbook for those new to the study of this vast and fascinating continent It makes sense of the diverse political systems that are a feature of Africa by using familiar concepts chapter by chapter to examine the continent as a whole The result is a textbook that identifies the essential features of African politics allowing students to grasp the recurring political patterns that have dominated this part of the world since independence Features and benefits of the book include thematically organised with individual chapters exploring issues such as colonialism ethnicity nationalism social class ideology legitimacy sovereignty and democracy identifies the key recurrent theme of competitive relationships between the African state its civil society and external interests contains useful boxed case studies of key countries at the end of each chapter including Kenya Tanzania Nigeria Botswana Ivory Coast Uganda Somalia Ghana Zaire and Algeria each chapter concludes with key terms and definitions as well as questions advice on further reading and useful notes and references clearly and accessibly written by an experienced teacher of the subject

Child Soldiers, Adult Interests John-Peter Pham, 2005 This book weaves a narrative of the history of Sierra Leone from its foundation as a settlement for black slaves who fought for the British Crown during the American Revolution through the events of the civil war with a discussion of more general geopolitical lessons to be learned from the recent conflict its origins and settlement In addition the book contains six appendices that render the present work the first comprehensive history of Sierra Leone since the classic studies published more than a generation ago by Christopher Fyfe and John Peterson an invaluable reference on conflict resolution in general as well as the West African country in particular including a chronology of select events in the history of Sierra Leone and the texts of the peace agreements and other post conflict documents

Migrant Women of Johannesburg C. Kihato, 2013-11-07 Through rich stories of African migrant women in Johannesburg this book explores the experience of living between geographies Author Caroline Kihato draws on fieldwork and analysis to examine the everyday lives of those inhabiting a fluid location between multiple worlds suspended between their original home and an imagined future elsewhere
