From Johnson's Kids to Lemonade Opera Victoria Etnier Villamil, 2004 American baritone Lawrence Tibbett created an overnight sensation at the Metropolitan Opera in 1925 when the audience stopped the performance of Falstaff to honor their compatriot for his exceptional talent Tibbett's now legendary curtain call foreshadowed a startling new era for classically trained native singers who rarely received the public recognition or respect given to their European colleagues In this absorbing work Victoria Etnier Villamil chronicles the extraordinary time from 1935 to 1950 when American artists who felt intensely inferior to foreign performers journeyed from being unappreciated in their own country to standing without apology on stages at home and abroad Drawing on exhaustive primary research and extensive interviews Villamil tells the remarkable story of a generation of American opera singers whose profession image and art were forever altered by the upheavals of World War II as well as sweeping cultural and technological changes The author's in depth look at these breakthrough years explores such defining factors as Edward Johnson's drive to Americanize the Met in his first seasons as general manager the impact of the microphone on singers and singing styles and the importance of radio and motion pictures in introducing classical music voices to wider audiences Villamil also considers how travel restrictions imposed on European artists during the war unlocked opportunities for American artists and the role of political and Jewish refugees in enriching music education and training in this country In addition the author discusses thoroughly the founding of the New York City Opera the rise of regional and smaller opera companies including the enterprising and popular Lemonade Opera and advancements for African American classical singers Brimming with entertaining anecdotes and colorful figures both famous and little remembered the fascinating book concludes with an examination of this crucial period s legacy for the American classical music scene in the 1950s and beyond From Johnson s Kids to Lemonade Opera contains an invaluable appendix that provides biographical sketches of the over 250 opera and radio singers as well as art song specialists featured in this illuminating study Women in Music Karin Pendle, Melinda Boyd, 2012-07-26 Women in Music A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography emerging from more than twenty five years of feminist scholarship on music This book testifies to the great variety of subjects and approaches represented in over two decades of published writings on women their work and the important roles that feminist outlooks have played in formerly male oriented academic scholarship or journalistic musings on women and music The Callas Imprint: A Centennial Biography Sophia Lambton, 2023-12-02 2024 ARSC Awards Winner Best Historical Research in Recorded Classical Music Coating opera s roles in opulence Maria Callas 1923 1977 is a lyrical enigma Seductress villainess and victor queen and crouching slave she is a gallery of guises instrumentalists would kill to engineer made by a single voice But while her craftsmanship has stood the test of time Callas image has contested defamation at the hands of saboteurs of beauty Twelve years in the making this voluminous labour of love explores the singer with the reverence she dealt her heroines The Callas Imprint A Centennial Biography reaps never before seen correspondence and archival documents worldwide to illustrate the complex of their multi faceted creator closing in on her self contradictions self descriptions attitudes and habits with empathic scrutiny It swivels readers through the singer s on and offstage scenes and flux of fears and dreams the double life of all performers In its unveiling of the everyday it rolls a vivid film reel starring friends and foes and nobodies vignettes that make up life It s verity It s meritable storytelling Not unlike the Callas art Daily Rituals: Women at Work Mason Currey, 2019-03-05 More of Mason Currey s irresistible Daily Rituals this time exploring the daily obstacles and rituals of women who are artists painters composers sculptors scientists filmmakers and performers We see how these brilliant minds get to work the choices they have to make rebuffing convention stealing or secreting away time from the pull of husbands wives children obligations in order to create their creations From those who are the masters of their craft Eudora Welty Lynn Fontanne Penelope Fitzgerald Marie Curie to those who were recognized in a burst of acclaim Lorraine Hansberry Zadie Smith from Clara Schumann and Shirley Jackson carving out small amounts of time from family life to Isadora Duncan and Agnes Martin rejecting the demands of domesticity Currey shows us the large and small and abiding choices these women made and continue to make for their art Isak Dinesen I promised the Devil my soul and in return he promised me that everything I was going to experience would be turned into tales Dinesen subsisting on oysters and Champagne but also amphetamines which gave her the overdrive she required And
