Cant We Talk About Something More Pleasant A Memoir:

Can't We Talk about Something More Pleasant? Roz Chast, 2014-05-06 1 New York Times Bestseller 2014 NATIONAL BOOK AWARD FINALIST In her first memoir New Yorker cartoonist Roz Chast brings her signature wit to the topic of aging parents Spanning the last several years of their lives and told through four color cartoons family photos and documents and a narrative as rife with laughs as it is with tears Chast's memoir is both comfort and comic relief for anyone experiencing the life altering loss of elderly parents When it came to her elderly mother and father Roz held to the practices of denial avoidance and distraction But when Elizabeth Chast climbed a ladder to locate an old souvenir from the crazy closet with predictable results the tools that had served Roz well through her parents seventies eighties and into their early nineties could no longer be deployed While the particulars are Chastian in their idiosyncrasies an anxious father who had relied heavily on his wife for stability as he slipped into dementia and a former assistant principal mother whose overbearing personality had sidelined Roz for decades the themes are universal adult children accepting a parental role aging and unstable parents leaving a family home for an institution dealing with uncomfortable physical intimacies managing logistics and hiring strangers to provide the most personal care An amazing portrait of two lives at their end and an only child coping as best she can Can't We Talk about Something More Pleasant will show the full range of Roz Chast's talent as cartoonist and storyteller

Transgressive Humor of American Women Writers Sabrina Fuchs Abrams, 2017-11-09 This collection is the first to focus on the transgressive and transformative power of American female humorists It explores the work of authors and comediennes such as Carolyn Wells Lucille Clifton Mary McCarthy Lynne Tillman Constance Rourke Roz Chast Amy Schumer and Samantha Bee and the ways in which their humor challenges gendered norms and assumptions through the use of irony satire parody and wit The chapters draw from the experiences of women from a variety of racial class and gender identities and encompass a variety of genres and comedic forms including poetry fiction prose autobiography graphic memoir comedic performance and new media Transgressive Humor of American Women Writers will appeal to a general educated readership as well as to those interested in women's and gender studies humor studies urban studies American literature and cultural studies and media studies

Matrilineal Dissent Annie Atura Bushnell, Lori Harrison-Kahan, Ashley Walters, 2024-05-07 Collectively contributors reframe Jewish American literary history through feminist approaches that have revolutionized the field from intersectionality and the MeToo movement to queer theory and disability studies Examining both canonical and lesser known texts this collection asks what happens to conventional understandings of Jewish American literature when we center women's writing and acknowledge women as dominant players in Jewish cultural production

Comics and Stuff Henry Jenkins, 2020-04-14 Considers how comics display our everyday stuff junk drawers bookshelves attics as a way into understanding how we represent ourselves now For most of their history comics were widely understood as disposable you read them and discarded them and the pulp paper they were printed on decomposed over time Today

comic books have been rebranded as graphic novels clothbound high gloss volumes that can be purchased in bookstores checked out of libraries and displayed proudly on bookshelves They are reviewed by serious critics and studied in university classrooms A medium once considered trash has been transformed into a respectable if not elite genre While the American comics of the past were about hyperbolic battles between good and evil most of today's graphic novels focus on everyday personal experiences Contemporary culture is awash with stuff They give vivid expression to a culture preoccupied with the processes of circulation and appraisal accumulation and possession By design comics encourage the reader to scan the landscape to pay attention to the physical objects that fill our lives and constitute our familiar surroundings Because comics take place in a completely fabricated world everything is there intentionally Comics are stuff comics tell stories about stuff and they display stuff When we use the phrase and stuff in everyday speech we often mean something vague something like etcetera In this book stuff refers not only to physical objects but also to the emotions sentimental attachments and nostalgic longings that we express or hold at bay through our relationships with stuff In Comics and Stuff his first solo authored book in over a decade pioneering media scholar Henry Jenkins moves through anthropology material culture literary criticism and art history to resituate comics in the cultural landscape Through over one hundred full color illustrations using close readings of contemporary graphic novels Jenkins explores how comics depict stuff and exposes the central role that stuff plays in how we curate our identities sustain memory and make meaning Comics and Stuff presents an innovative new way of thinking about comics and graphic novels that will change how we think about our stuff and ourselves

Female

Cartoonists in the United States Hélène Tison, 2021-11-29 This book provides an introduction to women cartoonists in the US reading their work from a feminist literary and stylistic perspective which shines a light on their innovative and unique narratives and graphic languages From rabid feminists to blundering teenagers to dyke avengers and pregnant butches from political satire to memoirs to troubling sexual tales from caricature to the clear line from realism to minimalism and abstraction they have done it all This book looks at the work of over thirty authors who have challenged the boys club of comics in the US and whose stories shed a revealing light on contemporary society through countercultural ripostes to the patriarchy raw or humorous confessions deconstruction of femininity stories of vulnerability that offer powerful counterpoints to the super bodies of mainstream comics non white and queer cartoonists drawing back and more This is a key title for students and scholars in the fields of Comics Studies Literature and Women and Gender Studies

Un/Bound

Megan Brown, Helga Lenart-Cheng, 2024-08-30 Life writing often explores the profound impact of border crossings both physical and metaphorical Writers navigate personal and cultural boundaries reflecting on identity belonging and the transformative power of crossing thresholds These narratives unveil the complexities of migration immigration or internal journeys offering intimate perspectives on adapting to new environments or confronting internal conflicts Un/Bound is a collection of essays about such narratives with an emphasis on mobility and border metaphors the ethical dimensions of cross border storytelling and questions of access translation and circulation Scholarly interest in borders mobility and related topics has greatly intensified in the context of public health emergencies and recent conflicts in international relations The chapters in this book contribute to this dialogue by exploring internal and external and physical and abstract borders and divisions This book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature translation studies and political philosophy The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of a b Auto Biography Studies

Women's Narratives of Ageing and Care Emily Jeremiah, Shirley Jordan, 2025-03-03 Care is fundamental to human survival yet it is often overlooked undermined undervalued and thought of as women s work Care of the old is particularly low in status and is too readily occluded This volume asks why and how cultures of care for older people are negatively configured It examines some of the powerful responses to relationships of intergenerational care in recent creative works by women It thereby contributes to the contemporary imperative to transform care by investigating some of the ways in which care might be redefined and reconceptualized Taking as its focus the representation or narrativization of care in theory literature visual culture and performance it engages with contemporary female authored works from diverse cultural contexts encouraging the development of comparative cross cultural perspectives Narrative is key here for it is in stories about ageing and care that the complexities and ambiguities of care relationships are made available and that simplified ideas about them are challenged This volume will be of interest to scholars in literary and cultural studies gender studies critical age studies the medical and health humanities and all who are interested in care

Modern Death Haider Warraich, 2017-02-07 There is no more universal truth in life than death No matter who you are it is certain that one day you will die but the mechanics and understanding of that experience will differ greatly in today s modern age Dr Haider Warraich is a young and brilliant new voice in the conversation about death and dying started by Dr Sherwin Nuland and Atul Gawande Dr Warraich takes a broader look at how we die today from the cellular level up to the very definition of death itself The most basic aspects of dying the whys wheres whens and hows are almost nothing like what they were mere decades ago Beyond its ecology epidemiology and economics the very ethos of death has changed Modern Death Dr Warraich s debut book will explore the rituals and language of dying that have developed in the last century and how modern technology has not only changed the hows whens and wheres of death but the what of death Delving into the vast body of research on the evolving nature of death Modern Death will provide readers with an enriched understanding of how death differs from the past what our ancestors got right and how trends and events have transformed this most final of human experiences

Mental Health and Wellness in Healthcare Workers: Identifying Risks, Prevention, and Treatment Bowers, Clint A., Beidel, Deborah C., Marks, Madeline R., Horan, Kristin, Cannon-Bowers, Janis, 2022-02-11 Recent events have revealed that many healthcare workers are subject to very high levels of occupational stress which has become particularly salient during the COVID 19 crisis Recent research indicates that due to a variety of occupational stressors healthcare workers are at risk for a number of mental and
