An account of WWII rescues that pays tribute to the audacity and heroism of the men and women of the French Resistance and Allied military personnel Warship World

The Shelburne was one of the later escape lines that operated within Nazi occupied Europe It was established at the end of 1943 by two agents who worked for MI 9 the London based military intelligence agency responsible for providing assistance to Allied servicemen stranded behind enemy lines Working with the French Resistance these agents arranged for groups of Allied airmen to be taken from safe houses in Paris to Brittany where a Royal Navy motor gunboat picked them up from a secluded beach and delivered them back to England Eight audacious evacuation operations were conducted between January and August 1944 without the Shelburne Line ever being infiltrated by the Gestapo Aspects of the Shelburne story have been told previously in memoirs by several of the participants including the late MP Airey Neave who was an MI 9 operative However Hemingway Douglass expands the story to include recollections of some of the local Breton people who were involved with the Line The second half of the book comprises personal stories of airmen and other individuals who were affiliated with the Shelburne Line or were otherwise caught up in the war in France A lifelong Francophile Hemingway Douglass took eight years to research and write the book She describes it as a labor of love that pays tribute to the heroism and courage of ordinary people while reinforcing the fact that war touches everybody Fascinating A must read for military and espionage enthusiasts The Bulletin Military Historical Society Dreamers and Doers Arlene Galisky, 2018-07-10
