in the field of children's literature studies Children in Chinese Art Ann Barrott Wicks, 2002-02-28 Depictions of children have had a prominent place in Chinese art since the Song period 960-1279. Yet one would be hard pressed to find any significant discussion of children in art in the historical documents of imperial China or contemporary scholarship on Chinese art. Children in Chinese Art brings to the forefront themes and motifs that have crossed social boundaries for centuries but have been overlooked in scholarly treatises. In this volume experts in the fields of art, religion, literature, and history introduce and elucidate many of the issues surrounding child imagery in China, including its use for didactic reinforcement of social values as well as the amuletic function of these works. The introduction provides a thought-provoking overview of the history of depictions of children, exploring both stylistic development and the emergence of specific themes. In an insightful essay China specialists combine expertise in literature and painting to propose that the focus on children in both genres during the Song is an indication of a truly humane society. Skillful use of visual and textual sources from the Ming (1368-1644) and Qing (1644-1911) periods explains children's games and the meaning of depictions of boys at play. Gender issues are examined in an intriguing look at mothers and children in woodblock illustrations to Ming versions of the classical text Lie ni juan. Depictions of the childhood of saints and sages from murals and commemorative tablets in ancient temples are considered. The volume concludes with two highly original essays on child protectors and destroyers in Chinese folk religion and family portraits and their scarcity in China before the nineteenth century. Contributors: Ellen B. Avril, Catherine Barnhart, Richard Barnhart, Terese Tse Bartholomew, Julia K. Murray, Ann Waltner, Ann Barrott Wicks Across Boundaries Dorothy Kenny, Kyongjoo Ryou, 2009-05-05 This book aims to showcase research into translation and translation teaching as they are currently practised in a variety of contexts across the globe. The editors are particularly interested in highlighting how particular concepts of translation, harmonization, thick translation, etc. have evolved or been applied in particular cultural contexts and how ideas from a variety of disciplines, descriptive translation studies, systemic functional grammar, corpus linguistics, etc. have found new applications in translation studies. The edited volume contains thirteen papers divided into three sections: Concepts and Methods in translation research; Verbal and Visual Perspectives; and Challenges in Training and Technology. Contributors from twelve countries: Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Hong Kong, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Korea, New Zealand, Spain, and the USA, and who embrace a variety of theoretical backgrounds: sociology, linguistics, semiotics, to name just a few, offer a genuinely international, multidisciplinary view of contemporary translation studies DK Children's Illustrated Encyclopedia, 1998 A highly illustrated one-volume encyclopedia containing 450 main entries ranging from Aboriginal Australians to Zoos Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Catalog of Copyright Entries.
