Impact of Mobile Payment Applications and Transfers on Business Opati, Thaisaiyi Zephania, Gachukia, Martin Kang'ethe, 2019-12-20 Consumers continue to rely heavily on their phones to complete such tasks as transferring funds between banks or accounts depositing or withdrawing funds paying bills and purchasing items Mobile money users are oftentimes more financially resilient and can protect themselves better against economic and other shocks Moreover mobile money can increase the velocity of money in circulation because it reduces the transactions and time costs of making retail payments As such understanding the impact of mobile payments is imperative for businesses and the economy Impact of Mobile Payment Applications and Transfers on Business is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on mobile money transfer and its impact in social corporate and micro and macro policies concerning the aggregate economy and individual households as a whole within an economy It covers the impact innovations business to business transformations regulatory framework challenges and ethical issues surrounding mobile money transfers around the world This book is ideally designed for economists financial analysts business managers leaders scholars practitioners researchers and students in fields that include management finance economics commerce and leadership Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga, Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga, Arnold Kwesiga, 2024-02-15 Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga Serges Djoyou Kamga and Arnold Kwesiga explore a relatively new phenomenon namely referred to as illicit financial flows that aim to impoverish the African continent and prevent its economic development There is a direct relationship between illicit financial flows and failed initiatives to realize the right to development on the continent For instance in 2016 Africa received 41 billion towards public development while 50 billion left the continent through illicit financial flows The gap between recent economic achievements on the continent and its state of generalized underdevelopment coupled with rampant poverty corruption prolonged economic crisis and political instabilities signals an issue with resource allocations The systematic theft of resources by multinational corporations and criminal networks is a hard blow to the idea of people driven development in line with the Pan African vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa proclaimed by Agenda 2063 Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Dynamics Perspectives and Prospects provides insights into the dynamics and perspectives on illicit financial flows and its dire impacts on the right to development and development initiatives across the continent Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss, Karl H. Federschmidt, Daniël Louw, Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which

interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today s globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontif cia Universidade Cat lica do Paran Brazil Corruption in Africa ,2015
