colonialism race and gender are explored through the cultural representations of an episode of Australian history Water Into Wine Tom Harpur,2008-11-06 Following the extraordinary and ongoing success of his 2004 book The Pagan Christ scholar and author Tom Harpur was deluged with readers requests to go more deeply into the mythological allegorical approach to the story of Jesus he took in that bestselling book In Water Into Wine Harpur sets out the powerful and transforming message that emerges when the Gospels are finally read as they were originally intended to be and as they were understood by the first Christians such as Origen and Clement Seen in their true mythological and symbolical meaning the stories in the drama of Jesus life come alive in a totally fresh way not as the account of a single distant god man working strange miracle like Superman or some other fictional magician but as a description of the evolution of the soul in everyone of us The theme of the Gospels parallels exactly the theme of the Old Testament as well as every ancient sacred text which is that a spark of the divine spirit incarnates in each and every human being Tom Harpur shows how the old old story is at the heart of every religion and how it is really our own personal story too Water Into Wine is a tour de force written by a skilled and learned communicator that should excite and nourish every true seeker after spiritual fulfillment As well it has the enormous potential for furthering the goal of global understanding and peace Postcolonial Borges Robin
