Engineering Earth Stanley D. Brunn, 2011-03-19 This is the first book to examine the actual impact of physical and social engineering projects in more than fifty countries from a multidisciplinary perspective The book brings together an international team of nearly two hundred authors from over two dozen different countries and more than a dozen different social environmental and engineering sciences Together they document and illustrate with case studies maps and photographs the scale and impacts of many megaprojects and the importance of studying these projects in historical contemporary and postmodern perspectives This pioneering book will stimulate interest in examining a variety of both social and physical engineering projects at local regional and global scales and from disciplinary and trans disciplinary perspectives

The Intellectual in Modern Chinese History Timothy

Cheek, 2016-01-05 This vivid narrative history of Chinese intellectuals and public life provides a guide to making sense of China today Timothy Cheek presents a map and a method for understanding the intellectual in the long twentieth century from China's defeat in the Sino Japanese war in 1895 to the Prosperous China since the 2008 Beijing Olympics Cheek surveys the changing terrain of intellectual life over this transformative century in Chinese history to enable readers to understand a particular figure idea or debate The map provides coordinates to track different times different social worlds and key concepts The historical method focuses on context and communities during six periods to make sense of ideas institutions and individual thinkers across the century Together they provide a memorable account of the scenes and protagonists and arguments and ideas of intellectuals and public life in modern China

Lijiang Stories Emily Chao, 2013-05-15 Lijiang a once sleepy market town in southwest China has become a magnet for tourism since the mid 1990s Drawing on stories about taxi drivers reluctant brides dogmeat and shamanism Emily Chao illustrates how biopolitics and the essentialization of difference shape the ways in which Naxi residents represent and interpret their social world The vignettes presented here are lively examples of the cultural reverberations that have occurred throughout contemporary China in the wake of its emergence as a global giant With particular attention to the politics of gender ethnicity and historical representation Chao reveals how citizens strategically imagine produce and critique a new moral economy in which the market and neoliberal logic are preeminent

A Companion to Chinese History Michael Szonyi, 2017-02-06 A Companion to Chinese History presents a collection of essays offering a comprehensive overview of the latest intellectual developments in the study of China's history from the ancient past up until the present day Covers the major trends in the study of Chinese history from antiquity to the present day Considers the latest scholarship of historians working in China and around the world Explores a variety of long range questions and themes which serves to bridge the conventional divide between China's traditional and modern eras Addresses China's connections with other nations and regions and enables non specialists to make comparisons with their own fields Features discussion of traditional topics and chronological approaches as well as newer themes such as Chinese history in relation to sexuality national identity and the environment

Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019 Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya's and Zambia's relations with the People's Republic of China from ideological political economic and social perspectives Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China's growing influence in the global South Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked Through the triangulation of the global Cold War African history and Chinese history this study provides a detailed analysis of China Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century Examining the encounters conflicts and dynamics of China Kenya Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of

African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China's foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa's historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China's relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations

The Changing Face of China John Gittings, 2006-07-06 Where is China heading in the 21st century Can its Communist Party survive or is it being challenged by growing inequality and unrest Will the US and China cooperate or compete in a dangerous future Will China's economic boom be brought to a halt by environmental catastrophe In this highly readable account John Gittings provides the essential information to help answer these vital questions for the world In the 60 years since Mao Zedong took the road to victory China has undergone not one but two revolutions The first swept away the old corrupt society and sought to build a spotless new socialism behind closed doors the second since Mao's death has focused on an economic agenda which accepts the goals of global capitalism From Mao to the global market Gittings charts this complex but epic tale and concludes with some hard questions for the future

The People's Republic of China at 60 William C. Kirby, 2020-10-26 In 2009 the Fairbank Center for Chinese Studies convened a major conference to discuss the health and longevity of China's ruling system and to consider a fundamental question After three decades of internal strife and turmoil followed by an era of reform entrepreneurialism and internationalization is the PRC here for the dynastic long haul Bringing together scholars and students of China from around the world the gathering witnessed an energetic exchange of views on four interrelated themes politics social transformations wealth and well being and culture belief and practice Edited and expanded from the original conference papers the wide ranging essays in this bilingual volume remain true to the conference's aim to promote open discussion of the past present and future of the People's Republic of China
