

The background of the book cover is a painting depicting two Cherokee people in a natural setting. One person, wearing a feathered headdress and a loincloth, sits on the ground facing right, holding a long pipe. The other person, seen from the back, is crouched and appears to be tending to a fire or a small structure. The scene is set against a backdrop of mountains and a bright, low sun, creating a warm, golden light. The title text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.
