Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geo political tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals

Dastardly Discourse Meg Gorzycki, 2020-03-09 Screaming at the television compulsively firing off tart little tweets and blogging until we are blue these signal that we are feeling the effects of dastardly discourse We live in a world where people feel entitled to use words to hurt exploit and publicly degrade humanity We daily consume rhetoric that makes a mockery of decency and civility Leaders of key social institutions including government news media and religious organizations who are supposed to be role models of reasoned and compassionate communication are often the ones with the loudest lies and the hardest hate We can change the channel We can unplug We can even encourage others to do the same We may not do so however until we grasp what is fundamentally at risk in our current norms of communication Nasty words are just the tip of the dastardly discourse iceberg What lies beneath is a steady flow of propaganda that aims to control our personal narratives This book is about that propaganda the importance of owning our own narratives and improving our own rhetorical capital the ability to analyze and evaluate information for the sake of sustaining human dignity decency and civility
