A Companion to Twentieth-Century Poetry Neil Roberts, 2008-04-15 In the twentieth century more people spoke English and more people wrote poetry than in the whole of previous history and this Companion strives to make sense of this crowded poetical era The original contributions by leading international scholars and practising poets were written as the contributors adjusted to the idea that the possibilities of twentieth century poetry were exhausted and finite However the volume also looks forward to the poetry and readings that the new century will bring The Companion embraces the extraordinary development of poetry over the century in twenty English speaking countries a century which began with a bipolar transatlantic connection in modernism and ended with the decentred heterogeneity of post colonialism Representation of the canonical and the marginal is therefore balanced including the full integration of women poets and feminist approaches and the in depth treatment of post colonial poets from various national traditions Discussion of context intertextualities and formal approaches illustrates the increasing self consciousness and self reflexivity of the period whilst a Readings section offers new readings of key selected texts The volume as a whole offers critical and contextual coverage of the full range of English language poetry in the last century Critical Perspectives on Culture and Globalisation Njogu, Kimani, Adem, Seifudein, 2017-08-08 In 1996 President Nelson Mandela described Professor Ali A Mazrui 1933-2014 as an outstanding educationist and freedom fighter In 2002 the former UN Secretary General Kofi Annan referred to Professor Mazrui as Africa's gift to the world Author of more than 35 books and hundreds of articles Professor Mazrui was an African scholar who had treated with uncommon verve and flair a wide range of themes that included globalization the triple heritage peace and social justice This volume engages with some of those themes that excited his mind for over six decades The multidisciplinary essays seek to underline the highlights of Mazrui's intellectual journey and attest to the fact that he was public intellectual par excellence Indeed in 2005 he was named one of the top 100 public intellectuals in the world This book is a product of a symposium held from 15 to 17 July 2016 in Nairobi Kenya The symposium was jointly organized by the Twaweza Communications Nairobi Kenya and the Institute of Global Cultural Studies State University of New York at Binghamton which Ali Mazrui created and presided over as the Albert Schweitzer Professor in the Humanities from 1991 to 2014 Postcolonial African Writers Siga Fatima Jagne, Pushpa Naidu Parekh, 2012-11-12 This reference book surveys the richness of postcolonial African literature The volume begins with an introductory essay on postcolonial criticism and African

Cycle of Doom: Selected Essays in Discourse and Society Dubem Okafor, 2005-09-01 These essays are essays indeed in the etymological sense of the word in that they try out my ideas on different topics and different texts As they are developed they build up to a climactic crescendo of futility which may be explained in part not by the darkening vision of a wizened and aging man but by the gathering storms which have tended to becloud the nation state of Nigeria The milieu from which my essays emerge has not been conducive to any optimistic or celebratory readings of texts and contexts
