The Difficulty of Difference D. N. Rodowick, 2014-01-21 This book argues that serious misreadings of Freud and Lacan on sexual difference have characterized prevailing models of psychoanalytic film criticism In critiquing theories of identification and female spectatorship the author maintains that early film theorists and feminist critics are equally guilty of imposing a binary conception of sexual difference on Freud's thought By embracing such a rigid definition of male female difference they fail to understand the fundamentally complex and fluid process of sexual identification as it is articulated in Freud's writing constructed in film texts and negotiated by spectators The book turns to Freud's work on fantasy to develop an alternative model for interpreting sexuality in the visual and narrative arts one that emphasizes a politics of critical reading over accepted theories of ideological identification Originally published in 1991 its strategic focus on psychoanalysis itself as an object of historical and critical inquiry and not simply as a reading method is the unique quality of this book The Oxford

Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron,2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 P dale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Ver 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender Films such as Sitcom Fran ois Ozon 1998 L Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997 Pourquoi pas moi St phane Giusti 1999 Dr le de F lix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and or gender as unfixed With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical melodrama romance or road movie these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address
