Digital Habitats Stewarding Technology For Communities:

Digital Habitats Etienne Wenger, Nancy White, John D. Smith, 2009 Technology has changed what it means for communities to be together Digital tools are now part of most communities habitats This book develops a new literacy and language to describe the practice of stewarding technology for communities Whether you want to ground your technology stewardship in theory and deepen your practice whether you are a community leader or sponsor who wants to understand how communities and technology intersect or whether you just want practical advice this is the book for you Handbook of Community Management Stan Garfield, 2020-09-07 This book is an in depth tutorial on how to make communities work to really improve business performance It covers principles and proven practices that ensure community success and longevity provides tips and techniques for leading communities and communities programs that the reader can apply immediately looks at different types of communities and the technologies that support them and illustrates communities in practice Social Media and Political Communities in Malaysia James Chin, Pauline Pooi Yin Leong, 2024-08-13 By examining the political discourse and social interactions that occur within six different political communities in Malaysia this volume sheds light on how theories of political communication and social media play out on a granular level Malaysia with its interesting amalgam of democratic politics and intractable racial and religious divides is ripe for a study of how online communication within different political and social groups actually works With chapters on Malay Islamic Chinese Indian and Christian online communities along with those of Sabah and Sarawak this volume will be of interest to anyone seeking a deeper understanding of how political interaction and digital discourse function on the ground in this important country in Southeast Asia Janet Steele Professor of Media and Public Affairs and International Affairs George Washington University Social media has emerged as a definitive tool for the production and dissemination of sociopolitical narratives that engender sweeping tides of change and transformation in our world today This expertly and ably curated collection of essays helps us better understand this phenomenon as it has unfolded in Malaysia where politics has undergone a sea change in recent years and it is essential reading for those of us who are interested in the trajectory of Malaysian society and politics Joseph Chinyong Liow Tan Kah Kee Chair in Comparative and International Politics Nanyang Technological University This book is relevant not only for readers interested in Malaysian politics The mid-sized Southeast Asian country offers a compelling case study for anyone thinking about online spaces and political participation in electoral democracies Among regimes with autocratic tendencies the Malaysian state was among the earliest adopters of an open internet which for two decades seemed to do nothing to weaken the hegemony of its ruling party More recently in an age marked by democratic backsliding around the world the country has shown potential to buck the trend The backdrop of these developments is one of the world's most culturally plural environments This welcome volume looks at how various ethnic communities communicating in each of the country's major languages have turned online spaces into the dominant arena for political contestation Cherian George Cruz, Rennie Saunders, 2025-11-18 This book revolutionises our understanding of academic and creative writing processes. This groundbreaking collection, the first of two volumes, explores how Shut Up Write SUAW sessions transform solitary writing into a powerful tool for community building, personal growth and enhanced wellbeing. Featuring 17 diverse chapters from global contributors, the book unveils SUAW's evolution from a simple productivity technique to a comprehensive approach for nurturing writer wellbeing. Organised into four key sections, it examines SUAW's role in fostering community, supporting academic development, transcending institutional boundaries and driving innovative wellbeing practices. From graduate students to established academics, university writing centres to national writers retreats, this book offers a kaleidoscope of perspectives on implementing and adapting SUAW. It challenges the notion of writing as an isolating pursuit, instead presenting it as a collaborative, supportive endeavour that boosts creativity, builds resilience and cultivates a sense of belonging. This essential read provides both practical strategies and theoretical insights, making it invaluable for writing program administrators, academic developers, researchers and anyone interested in innovative approaches to supporting writers' wellbeing.

International Handbook of Media Literacy Education Belinha S. De Abreu, Paul Mihailidis, Alice Y.L. Lee, Jad Melki, Julian McDougall, 2017-04-21 At the forefront in its field, this Handbook examines the theoretical, conceptual, pedagogical and methodological development of media literacy education and research around the world. Building on traditional media literacy frameworks in critical analysis, evaluation and assessment, it incorporates new literacies emerging around connective technologies, mobile platforms and social networks. A global perspective, rather than a Western-centric point of view, is explicitly highlighted with contributors from all continents to show the empirical research being done at the intersection of media education and engagement in daily life. Structured around five themes: Educational Interventions, Safeguarding Data and Online Privacy, Engagement in Civic Life, Media Creativity and Production, Digital Media Literacy, the volume as a whole emphasizes the competencies needed to engage in meaningful participation in digital culture.

Implementing Communities of Practice in Higher Education Jacquie McDonald, Aileen Cater-Steel, 2016-11-23 In this edited collection, the authors pick up the communities of practice (CoP) approach of sharing practice in their reflection on the experience of taking their CoP vision from a dream to reality. Their stories articulate the vision, the passion and the challenge of working within and/or changing existing institutional culture and practice. The book discusses strategies that worked and considers the lessons learnt to inspire future dreamers and schemers. The multiple perspectives provided in the case studies will assist higher education leaders as well as academic and professional staff in establishing or assessing CoPs. The book offers insights into implementation strategies, practical guidelines and ideas on how CoP theoretical underpinnings can be tailored to the higher education context.
