First Cut 2 Gabriella Oldham, 2012-08-01 First Cut 2 More Conversations with Film Editors presents a new collection of twelve interviews with award winning film editors who discuss the art and craft of editing in the twenty first century As a follow up to the successful First Cut Conversations with Film Editors now celebrating its 20th anniversary this new volume explores the transition of editing from the age of celluloid to the digital age These extraordinarily articulate editors share their passion about film offer detailed practical examples from their films to explain their process as well as their challenges and imbue each interview with unique personality humor and cinematic insights First Cut 2 continues the tradition of the first volume by interviewing both fiction and documentary editors contributing to a rich holistic appreciation of editing It also introduces a significant interview with an independent filmmaker

editor to emphasize today's multiple opportunities for aspiring filmmakers to make their own small films and achieve success Together with the first volume First Cut 2 offers a panoramic survey of film editing and preserves its history through the voices of its practitioners The stories told will engage students inform general filmgoers and even enlighten industry professionals

Film and Video Editing Theory Michael Frierson, 2018-03-28 Film and Video Editing Theory offers an accessible introductory guide to the practices used to create meaning through editing In this book Michael Frierson synthesizes the theories of the most prominent film editors and scholars from Herbert Zettl Sergei Eisenstein and Noel Burch to the work of landmark Hollywood editors like Walter Murch and Edward Dmytryk In so doing he maps out a set of craft principles for readers whether one is debating if a flashback reveals too much if a certain cut clarifies or obscures the space of a scene or if a shot needs to be trimmed The book is grounded in the unity of theory and practice looking beyond technical proficiency in a specific software to explain to readers how and why certain cuts work or don't work

The Hollywood Renaissance Yannis Tzioumakis, Peter Krämer, 2018-06-28 In December 1967 Time magazine put Bonnie and Clyde on its cover and proudly declared that Hollywood cinema was undergoing a renaissance For the next few years a wide range of formally and thematically challenging films were produced at the very centre of the American film industry often but by no means always combining success at the box office with huge critical acclaim both then and later This collection brings together acknowledged experts on American cinema to examine thirteen key films from the years 1966 to 1974 starting with Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? a major studio release which was in effect exempted from Hollywood's Production Code and thus helped to liberate American filmmaking from self censorship Long standing taboos to do with sex violence race relations drugs politics religion and much else could now be broken often in conjunction with extensive stylistic experimentation Whereas most previous scholarship has examined these developments through the prism of auteurism with its tight focus on film directors and their oeuvres the contributors to this collection also carefully examine production histories and processes In doing so they pay particular attention to the economic underpinnings and collaborative nature of filmmaking the influence of European art cinema as well as of exploitation experimental and underground films and the connections between cinema and other media notably publishing music and theatre Several chapters show how the innovations of the Hollywood Renaissance relate to further changes in American cinema from the mid 1970s onwards
