Birdwatching in New York City and on Long Island Deborah Rivel, Kellye Rosenheim, 2016-05-03 A detailed insider's guide to the best places to find birds in all seasons

The Bird Skinner Alice Greenway, 2014-01-07 Jim Kennoway was once an esteemed member of the ornithology department at the Museum of Natural History in New York collecting and skinning birds as specimens Slowing down from a hard lived life and a recent leg amputation Jim retreats to an island in Maine to drink smoke and to be left alone As a young man he worked for Naval Intelligence during World War II in the Solomon Islands While spying on Japanese shipping from behind enemy lines Jim befriended Tosca a young islander who worked with him as a scout Now thirty years later Tosca has sent his daughter Cadillac to stay with Jim in the weeks before she begins premedical studies at Yale She arrives to Jim s consternation yet she will capture his heart and the hearts of everyone she meets irrevocably changing their lives Written in lush lyrical prose rich in island detail redolent of Maine in summer and of the Pacific The Bird Skinner is wise and wrenching an unforgettable masterwork from an extraordinarily skillful novelist City Branding K. Dinnie,2010-12-03 The practice of city branding is being adopted by increasing numbers of city authorities around the world and it is having a direct impact on public and private sector practice The author captures this emerging phenomenon in a way that blends a solid theoretical and conceptual underpinning together with relevant real life cases Birding ,2008 Night Magic Leigh Ann Henion,2024-09-24 From a New York Times bestselling nature writer comes a celebration of what goes on outside in the dark from blooming moon gardens to nocturnal salamanders from glowing foxfire and synchronous fireflies that blink in unison like an orchestra of light In this glorious celebration of the night New York Times bestselling nature writer Leigh Ann Henion invites us to leave our well lit homes step outside and embrace the dark as a profoundly beautiful part of the world we inhabit Because no matter where we live we are surrounded by animals that rise with the moon and blooms that reveal themselves as light fades Henion explores her home region of Appalachia where she attends a synchronous firefly event in Tennessee a bat outing in Alabama and a moth festival in Ohio In North Carolina she finds forests alight with bioluminescent mushrooms neighborhood trees full of screech owls and valleys teeming with migratory salamanders Along the way Henion encounters naturalists biologists primitive skills experts and others who ve dedicated their lives to cultivating relationships with darkness Every page of this lyrical book feels like an opportunity to ask How did I not know about this before For example we learn that it can take hours not minutes for human eyes to reach full night vision capacity And that there are thousands of firefly species on earth many with flash patterns as unique as fingerprints In an age of increasing artificial light Night Magic focuses on the amazing biodiversity that still surrounds us after sunset We do not need to stargaze into the distant cosmos or dive into the depths of oceans to find awe in the dark There are dazzling wonders in our own backyards And readers of World of Wonders Entangled Life and The Hidden Life of Trees will discover joy in Night Magic Orion ,2008 Science News ,2008 Book Review Digest ,2008
