De Generale Repetitie:

Programs of Concerts Conducted by Willem Mengelberg, 1924 Eye-catching Anaphora Arnout Willem Koornneef, 2008 Herman Heijermans and His Dramas Seymour L. Flaxman, 2012-12-06 During the last two decades of the nineteenth century the Dutch drama which had lapsed into a state of somnolence since the glorious days of Vondel suddenly awoke to vigorous life Not only did gifted dramatists appear but talented directors actors and actresses brought new splendor to the theatre Yet this brilliant flame did not burst forth in a vacuum and to appreciate the quality of its light it must be viewed against the background of its origins in the European drama After the middle of the century the emphasis in literary creation had shifted from a subjective emotional point of view to a more objective and rationalistic attitude If this seems only a roundabout way of saying that Romanticism yielded its dominance to Realism and Naturalism the conclusion is justified but we should not yield too readily to the pseudo scientific mania which urges us to force literature into a genus and species type of classification It is customary to say that in the eighties and nineties Naturalism won a decisive victory over Romanticism and drove the partisans of the older movement from the field At first glance this does indeed appear to be true Hugo yields to Zola Pushkin to Tolstoi Tieck to Hauptmann It is all quite simple The New Common Emile Aarts, Hein Fleuren, Margriet Sitskoorn, Ton Wilthagen, 2021-03-19 This open access book presents the scientific views of some fifty experts on how they believe the COVID 19 pandemic is currently affecting society and how it will continue to do so in the years to come Using the concept of a common in the sense of common values common places common goods and common sense they elaborate on the transition from an Old Common to a New Common In carefully crafted chapters the authors address expected shifts in major fields like health education finance business work and citizenship applying concepts from law psychology economics sociology religious studies and computer science to do so Many of the authors anticipate an acceleration of the digital transformation in the forthcoming years but at the same time they argue that a successful shift to a new common can only be achieved by re-evaluating life on our planet strengthening resilience at an individual level and assuming more responsibility at a societal level Essential Dutch Dictionary: Teach Yourself Gerdi Quist, Dennis Strik, 2012-03-09 With over 30 000 translations including everyday idioms and expressions Essential Dutch Dictionary is the perfect tool to support your Dutch learning This new edition is fully updated with a guide to usage and insights from the author to help you learn and remember new words and phrases New interactive features NOT GOT MUCH TIME One five and ten minute introductions to key principles to get you started AUTHOR INSIGHTS Lots of instant help with common problems and quick tips for success based on the author's many years of experience TEST YOURSELF Tests and online to keep track of your progress EXTEND YOUR KNOWLEDGE Extra online articles at www.teachyourself.com to give you a richer understanding of the culture and history of the Netherlands WAYANG WONG R.M. Soedarsono, 2021-11-24 Preface I have been teaching the history of performing arts and Javanese dance Yogyakarta style for twenty years and there have always been two features of this history that made me think and rethink 1 wayang wong was never performed outside the palace's walls until the first quarter of the twentieth century because it was considered a pusaka sacred heirloom and 2 wayang wong performances were always put on the Tratag Bangsal Kencana stage and started at dawn. Numerous ex wayang wong dancers of the Yogyakarta court gave me the same answers to my questions about these facts. They said that 1 wayang wong was a pusaka because it was created by Sultan Hamengkubuwana I and 2 wayang wong performances were put on stage at the dawn of the day because it was karsa Dal in the Sultan's will. In my opinion, there must be something particularly significant behind the creation of wayang wong because the Surakarta court never performed this dance genre and I realized that to obtain satisfactory answers to these questions I would have to do extensive research on this subject. In August 1977 when I participated in the World Music Congress at Berkeley, I met Professor Judith Becker. On one occasion I talked with her concerning the possibility of my pursuing a Ph.D. degree at the University of Michigan with a dissertation topic Wayang Wong. She responded wholeheartedly and without any delay made a long distance call to her husband Professor Alton L. Becker. Both of them became my teachers, advisors and co-chairmen. After my return from Berkeley, I started to do research on some aspects of wayang wong. In 1980 I began my course work in Southeast Asian Studies at the University of Michigan, emphasizing three areas of study: 1 Southeast Asian Performance Traditions, 2 Southeast Asian History and 3 Southeast Asian Literature. With the assistance of the Asian Cultural Council, I continued my research at the Asia Society and the Library of Performing Arts in New York. There I scrutinized wayang wong films, especially the one of the lakon Mintaraga made by Mr. Tassilo Adam in 1926. Although the film is very choppy, it gave me priceless information about the magnificent production and also about the large audience of kawula Dal in the Sultan's subjects who witnessed the performance. With the assistance of the Asian Cultural Council, the Ford Foundation and the University of Michigan, I returned to Java during the summer of 1981 to continue my research at the Yogyakarta court libraries, The Sanabudaya Museum and to interview numerous ex wayang wong dancers. From these activities, the first evidence for my hypothesis emerged, i.e. that wayang wong was a state ritual and not just a mere entertainment in the Yogyakarta court. By reading numerous wayang wong texts Surat Kandha and Surat Pocapan all in Javanese handwriting manuscripts about the Yogyakarta's pusakas and by analysing the conception of kingship of Mataram, I obtained enough data to confirm my hypothesis further. It became apparent to me that wayang wong was created by Sultan Hamengkubuwana I in the late 1970s as a revival of the Old Javanese wayang wong. Photographs play a significant role in this work since visual information about this dance drama gives us a clear image of numerous scenes. With the exception of figures nos 13, 17, 69 and 84, all the photographs and pictures are from my own collection and drawing. Photographs are nevertheless motionless shots of dance movement and therefore cannot distinguish the movements of one character from another. Hence I have felt it necessary to put the basic movements of the twenty-one wayang wong types of character in Labanotation.
