Kong cinema from its inception in 1913 to the end of the colonial era this work explains the key areas of production market film products and critical traditions Hong Kong Cinema considers the different political formations of Hong Kong's culture as seen through the cinema and deals with the historical political economic and cultural relations between Hong Kong cinema and other Chinese film industries on the mainland as well as in Taiwan and South East Asia Discussion covers the concept of national cinema in the context of Hong Kong's status as a quasi nation with strong links to both the motherland China and the coloniser Britain and also argues that Hong Kong cinema is a national cinema only in an incomplete and ambiguous sense
