Deeper Than Reason Emotion And Its Role In Literature Music And Art:

Deeper than Reason Jenefer Robinson, 2005-04-07 Deeper than Reason takes the insights of modern psychological and neuroscientific research on the emotions and brings them to bear on questions about our emotional involvement with the arts Robinson begins by laying out a theory of emotion one that is supported by the best evidence from current empirical work on emotions and then in the light of this theory examines some of the ways in which the emotions function in the arts Written in a clear and engaging style her book will make fascinating reading for anyone who is interested in the emotions and how they work as well as anyone engaged with the arts and aesthetics especially with questions about emotional expression in the arts emotional experience of art forms and more generally artistic interpretation Part One develops a theory of emotions as processes having at their core non cognitive instinctive appraisals deeper than reason which automatically induce physiological changes and action tendencies and which then give way to cognitive monitoring of the situation Part Two examines the role of the emotions in understanding literature especially the great realistic novels of the nineteenth century Robinson argues that such works need to be experienced emotionally if they are to be properly understood A detailed reading of Edith Wharton's novel The Reef demonstrates how a great novel can educate us emotionally by first evoking instinctive emotional responses and then getting us to cognitively monitor and reflect upon them Part Three puts forward a new Romantic theory of emotional expression in the arts Part Four deals with music both the emotional expression of emotion in music whether vocal or instrumental and the arousal of emotion by music The way music arouses emotion lends indirect support to the theory of emotion outlined in Part One While grounded in the science of emotion Deeper than Reason demonstrates the continuing importance of the arts and humanities to our lives Deeper Than Reason Jenefer Robinson, 2005 Jenefer Robinson uses modern psychological and neuroscientific research on the emotions to study our emotional involvement with the arts A Companion to the Philosophy of Literature Garry L. Hagberg, Walter Jost, 2015-02-16 This monumental collection of new and recent essays from an international team of eminent scholars represents the best contemporary critical thinking relating to both literary and philosophical studies of literature Helpfully groups essays into the field's main sub categories among them Relations Between Philosophy and Literature Emotional Engagement and the Experience of Reading Literature and the Moral Life and Literary Language Offers a combination of analytical precision and literary richness Represents an unparalleled work of reference for students and specialists alike ideal for course use The Emotional Power of Music Tom Cochrane, Bernardino Fantini, Klaus R. Scherer, 2013-07-18 How can an abstract sequence of sounds so intensely express emotional states In the past ten years research into the topic of music and emotion has flourished This book explores the relationship between music and emotion bringing together contributions from psychologists neuroscientists musicologists musicians and philosophers Movie Greats Philip Gillett, 2008-10-15 Movie Greats questions how cinema is ranked uncovers a history of critical conflict with different aesthetic positions battling for dominance Each chapter opens with a brief summary of the film s plot goes on to discuss the historical context the key individuals who made the film initial subsequent popular critical responses Cinematic Ethics Robert Sinnerbrink,2015-10-23 How do movies evoke and express ethical ideas What role does our emotional involvement play in this process What makes the aesthetic power of cinema ethically significant Cinematic Ethics Exploring Ethical Experience through Film addresses these questions by examining the idea of cinema as a medium of ethical experience with the power to provoke emotional understanding and philosophical thinking In a clear and engaging style Robert Sinnerbrink examines the key philosophical approaches to ethics in contemporary film theory and philosophy using detailed case studies of cinematic ethics across different genres styles and filmic traditions Written in a lucid and lively style that will engage both specialist and non specialist readers this book is ideal for use in the academic study of philosophy and film Key features include annotated suggestions for further reading at the end of each chapter and a filmography of movies useful for teaching and researching cinematic ethics Emotion: The Basics Michael Brady,2018-12-07 While human beings might be rational animals they are emotional animals as well Emotions play a central role in all areas of our lives and if we are to have a proper understanding of human life and activity we ought to have a good grasp of the emotions Michael S Brady structures Emotion The Basics around two basic yet fundamental questions What are emotions And what do emotions do In answering these questions Brady provides insight into a core component of all our lives covering the nature of emotion emotion knowledge and understanding emotion and action emotions and social groups emotion morality and art In this concise and insightful introduction Brady explains why we are often better off as a result of emotion rather than reason being in the driving seat as our lives both individual and social would be significantly impoverished without the emotions With a glossary of key terms and suggestions for further reading Emotion The Basics is an ideal starting point for anyone seeking a full introduction to the philosophical study of emotion Eighteenth-Century Literary Affections Louise Joy,2020-07-29 This book assesses the mediating role played by affections in eighteenth century contestations about reason and passion questioning their availability and desirability outside textual form It examines the formulation and idealization of this affective category in works by Isaac Watts Lord Shaftesbury Mary Hays William Godwin Helen Maria Williams and William Wordsworth Part I outlines how affections are invested with utopian potential in theology moral philosophy and criticism re imagining what it might mean to know emotion Part II considers attempts of writers at the end of the period to draw affections into literature as a means of negotiating a middle way between realism and idealism expressivism and didacticism particularity and abstraction subjectivity and objectivity femininity and masculinity radicalism and conservatism and the foreign and the domestic Music in the Social and Behavioral Sciences William Forde Thompson,2014-07-18 This first definitive reference resource to take a broad interdisciplinary approach to the nexus between music and the social and behavioral sciences examines how music affects human beings and their interactions in and with the world The interdisciplinary nature
