Censoring Culture Contemporary Threats To Free Expression

Naomi Jackson, Toni Shapiro-Phim

Censoring Culture Contemporary Threats To Free Expression:

Censoring Culture Robert Atkins, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2006 If your idea of censorship is an anonymous bureaucrat in a government office exercising prudish control over offensive art and speech wake up and smell the conglomeration Censorship today is just as likely to be the result of a market force or a bandwidth monopoly as a line edit or the covering of a nude sculpture and the current system of new technologies and economic arrangements has subtly built in mechanisms for suppressing free expression as powerful as any known in other centuries In Censoring Culture the nationally known author of the ArtSpeak books and the head of the National Coalition Against Censorship's Arts Program bring together the latest thinking from art historians cultural theorists legal scholars and psychoanalysts as well as first person accounts by artists and advocates to give us a comprehensive understanding of censorship in a new century

Censoring Art Roisin Kennedy, Riann Coulter, 2018-10-30 Art is continuously subjected to insidious forms of censorship This may be by the Church to guard against moral degeneration by the State to promote a specific political agenda or by the art market to elevate one artist above another Now and in the last century artwork that touches on ethnic religious sexual national or institutional sensitivities is liable to be destroyed or hidden away ignored or side lined Drawing from new research into historical and contemporary case studies Censoring Art Silencing the Artwork provides diverse ways of understanding the purpose and mechanisms of art censorship across distinct geopolitical and cultural contexts from Iran Japan and Uzbekistan to Britain Ireland Canada Macedonia Soviet Russia and Cyprus Its contributions uncover the impact of this silent control of the production and exhibition of art and consider how censorship has affected art practice and public perceptions of artworks

Free Speech and Incitement in the Twenty-First Century Eric T. Kasper, JoAnne Sweeny, 2025-05-01 Explores the line between free speech protected by the First Amendment and unprotected incitement to imminent lawless action Free Speech and Incitement in the Twenty First Century explores the line between free speech and incitement which is a form of expression not protected by the First Amendment Incitement occurs when a person intentionally provokes their audience to engage in illegal or violent action that is likely to or will occur imminently This doctrine evolved from World War I through the Cold War and the civil rights movement era culminating in a test announced by the US Supreme Court in Brandenburg v Ohio 1969 Since the 1970s this doctrine has remained largely unchanged by the Supreme Court and as such has received relatively little academic or media attention Since the late 2010s however violence at political rallies armed protests around Confederate statues social unrest associated with demonstrations against police and an attack on the US Capitol have led to new incitement cases in the lower courts and an opportunity to examine how incitement is defined and applied Authors from different perspectives in Free Speech and Incitement in the Twenty First Century help the reader understand the difference between free speech and incitement

Curating Under Pressure Janet Marstine, Svetlana Mintcheva, 2020-07-14 Curating Under Pressure breaks the silence surrounding curatorial self censorship and shows that it is both endemic to the practice and ubiquitous Contributors map the diverse forms such self censorship takes and offer creative strategies for negotiating curatorial integrity This is the first book to look at pressures to self censor and the curatorial responses to these pressures from a wide range of international perspectives The book offers examples of the many creative strategies that curators deploy to negotiate pressures to self censor and gives evidence of curators political acumen ethical sagacity and resilience over the long term It also challenges the assumption that self censorship is something to be avoided at all costs and suggests that a decision to self censor may sometimes be politically and ethically imperative Curating Under Pressure serves as a corrective to the assumption that censorship pressures render practitioners impotent It demonstrates that curatorial practice under pressure offers inspiring models of agency ingenuity and empowerment Curating Under Pressure is a highly original and intellectually ambitious volume and as such will be of great interest to students and academics in the areas of museum studies curatorial and gallery studies art history studio art and arts administration The book will also be an essential tool for museum practitioners

The Five Literacies of Global Leadership Richard David Hames, 2015-06-10 New research has exposed our leadership paradigm as a outdated mess of flawed models and practices By working with great leaders and observing their common attitudes and behaviours Richard Hames has cracked a universal code based on intelligence appreciation and collaboration This code unlocks Five Literacies of Global Leadership These behaviours are the trade secrets of the artists and alchemists among us Often instinctively these leaders charge others with energy search for new perspectives and embrace diversity And they are driven by dialogue This book reveals approaches and attitudes that they all share and that can make anyone an exceptional leader

Instigation to Crimes against Humanity Avitus A. Agbor, 2013-11-15 In Instigation to Crimes Against Humanity The Flawed Jurisprudence of the Trial and Appeal Chambers of the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda ICTR Avitus A Agbor critiques the jurisprudence of the ICTR on instigation to crimes against humanity under Article 6 1

Media Law in the time of liquid modernity Jacek Sobczak, Jędrzej Skrzypczak, Ksenia Kakareko, 2017 Political and social changes that took place at the turn of the 20th and 21st centuries and additionally technological revolution and the process of digitalisation have resulted in significant social economic and legal transformations Then it can be even said metaphorically that together with the development of the Internet we discovered a new continent Colonization of this area resembles conquering new areas in times of great geographical discoveries At first power and violence were prevailing and only later people tried to introduce effective methods of law enforcement Nowadays the next problem is the non territoriality of phenomena on the Internet From the point of view of legal actions it is generally limited to a legal system of a given country and seems to be a fundamental issue As it appears law and legal systems do not handle the challenges of global space and it is rather a gunslinger s speed that turns out to be essential here However it should be hoped that with time as in the case of the real world experience power will be replaced with powerful arguments based on effective legal mechanisms in particular All the more so as these changes happen very rapidly Thus referring to the known concept of liquid modernity by Zygmunt Bauman it can also be said that by regulating the media subject in the field of law to fundamental changes we are confronted with the uncertainty of legal institutions concerning this part of social life Hence we should return to the basics and again pose fundamental questions about media law such as for instance what should the press radio television be called and who can be treated as a journalist Additionally we should face new legal phenomena and challenges The collective work we are passing to the readers is an attempt to analyse the current state and present a forecast about further changes as well as answers to at least several questions posed above Being aware of the fact that it is impossible to deal with or even settle all the aforementioned problems in such a study the editors hope that thanks to reviews and deliberations of the authors the book will significantly contribute to the discussion on media law in the 21st century The authors of individual chapters of this book are researchers from various Polish scientific institutions and members of the Polish PressLawAssociation

Samsung, Media Empire and Family Chunhyo Kim,2016-02-26 This book analyses media conglomerates owning multiple media holdings under centralized ownership within and across media markets It argues that Asian capitalists utilize both a market oriented ideology and family connections to build their media empires thereby creating cultural conglomerates that exercise corporate censorship over media markets It focuses on family controlled media conglomerates in Korea specifically the international business giant Samsung and its related media companies Cheil Jedang and JoongAng Ilbo all of which are controlled by the single Lee family Utilizing the theoretical approach of political economy of communication the book examines how and why the Lee family exercise corporate censorship over Korean society Offering an essential take on Asia s political economy of communication in order to understand the workings of Asian media empires this book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean Studies Korean Business and Mass Communications

Dance, Human Rights, and Social Justice Naomi Jackson,Toni Shapiro-Phim,2008-11-06 Dance Human Rights and Social Justice Dignity in Motion presents a wide ranging compilation of essays spanning more than 15 countries Organized in four parts the articles examine the regulation and exploitation of dancers and dance activity by government and authoritative groups including abusive treatment of dancers within the dance profession choreography involving human rights as a central theme the engagement of dance as a means of healing victims of human rights abuses and national and local social political movements in which dance plays a powerful role in helping people fight oppression These groundbreaking papers both detailed scholarship and riveting personal accounts encompass a broad spectrum of issues from slavery and the Holocaust to the Bosnian and Rwandan genocides to the Israeli Palestinian conflict from First Amendment cases and the AIDS epidemic to discrimination resulting from age gender race and disability A range of academics choreographers dancers and dance movement therapists draw connections between refugee camp courtroom theater rehearsal studio and university classroom

The Exploit Alexander R. Galloway,Eugene Thacker,2013-11-30 The network has become the core organizational structure for postmodern politics culture and life replacing the modern era's hierarchical systems. From peer-to-peer file sharing and massive multiplayer online games to contagion vectors of digital or biological viruses and global affiliations of terrorist organizations, the network form has become so invasive that nearly every aspect of contemporary society can be located within it. Borrowing their title from the hacker term for a program that takes advantage of a flaw in a network system, Alexander R. Galloway and Eugene Thacker challenge the widespread assumption that networks are inherently egalitarian. Instead, they contend that there exist new modes of control entirely native to networks: modes that are at once highly centralized and dispersed, corporate and subversive. In this provocative book-length essay, Galloway and Thacker argue that a whole new topology must be invented to resist and reshape the network form, one that is as asymmetrical in relationship to networks as the network is in relation to hierarchy.
