Civilizing And Decivilizing Processes Figural Approaches To American Culture:

Civilizing and Decivilizing Processes Christa Buschendorf, Astrid Franke, Johannes Voetz, 2011-01-18 This volume collects new articles that explore the theoretical framework of figural or relational sociology as represented by Norbert Elias and Pierre Bourdieu with regard to its relevance to American history culture and literature The emphasis is put on Elias's theory of the civilizing process and the question in how far his study of the European process of state formation and the correlative psycho social changes is relevant to the analysis of the development of the American nation state and the habitus of Americans Leading scholars from the field of figural sociology team up with an international cast of renowned Americanists to shed new light on a variety of issues from the domains of social theory cultural history and literary criticism With Elias as a guide drinking and democracy in the early republic nineteenth century Indian boarding schools the fear of slave insurrections and the modern day black ghetto appear as steps in an open ended and non teleological civilizing process that weaves together changes in habitus and social structure Without stumbling into the pitfalls of an ideology of American exceptionalism the figural approach to American studies allows the contributors of this pioneering collection to give new answers to the tenacious question of the United States peculiar characteristics Adapting Elias's analyses to US American conditions the authors provide fresh impulses for theorizing civilizing and decivilizing processes thus transforming the field of both American studies and figural sociology The contributors are Jesse F Battan Christa Buschendorf Rachel Hope Cleves Winfried Fluck Astrid Franke Mary O Furner G nter Leypoldt Stephen Mennell Ruxandra R dulescu Kirsten Twelbeck Johannes Voetz Lo c Wacquant and Cas Wouters

Collective Myths and Decivilizing Processes Stefan Kramer, Peter Ludes, 2021-01-27 Collective myths shape and frame contemporary communication processes as well as the collective subconscious International contributors from the humanities and social sciences focus on interdependencies between collective myths and decivilizing processes in China and the United States global economics and recent technological advances They highlight long term de civilizing processes also for the globally important survival units India and Turkey and the violently contested border areas of Afghanistan and Pakistan

Power Relations in Black Lives Christa Buschendorf, 2017-11-15 According to relational sociology power imbalances are at the root of human conflicts and consequently shape the physical and symbolic struggles between interdependent groups or individuals This volume highlights the role of power relations in the African American experience by applying key concepts of Pierre Bourdieu and Norbert Elias to black literature and culture The authors offer new readings of power asymmetries as represented in works of canonical and contemporary black writers Richard Wright Ralph Ellison Gwendolyn Brooks Toni Morrison Percival Everett Colson Whitehead rap music e g Jay Z images of black homelessness and figurations of political activism civil rights activist Bayard Rustin BlackLivesMatter in Ferguson

Origins of the Kurdish Genocide Ibrahim Sadiq, 2021-05-05 The author argues that a part of the history of nation building in Iraq through addressing its political characters different communities agreements and pan Arab ideology including the Baath ideology and its attempts to seize power through nondemocratic methods It is an attempt to approach the essence of the exclusion mentality of the ruling elite in order to understand the process of genocide against the Kurdish people including all existing religious minorities This essence of the process has been approached in the framework of the civilizing and de civilizing process as a main theory of the German sociologist Norbert Elias Thus this book may be considered as one of the comprehensive books to present a study of state building in Iraq along with identifying some of the political figures that had an essential impact on the construction On the other hand it is a comprehensive study of the genocide in the sense of searching for the causes and roots of the genocide The Anfal campaigns took place in 1988 but the process started as far back as the end of the sixties and the beginning of the seventies of the last century

Norbert Elias and Violence Tatiana Savoia Landini,François Dépelteau,2017-03-20 This book presents key conceptualizations of violence as developed by Norbert Elias The authors explain and exemplify these concepts by analyzing Elias s late texts comparing his views to those of Sigmund Freud and by analyzing the work of filmmaker Michael Haneke The authors then discuss the strengths and shortcomings of Elias s thoughts on violence by examining various social processes such as colonization imperialism and the Brazilian civilizing process in addition to the ambivalence of state violence The final chapters suggest how these concepts can be used to explain difficulties in implementing democracy grappling with memories of violence and state building after democracy

African American Culture and Society After Rodney King Josephine Metcalf,Carina Spaulding,2016-03-09 1992 was a pivotal moment in African American history with the Rodney King riots providing palpable evidence of racialized police brutality media stereotyping of African Americans and institutional discrimination Following the twentieth anniversary of the Los Angeles uprising this time period allows reflection on the shifting state of race in America considering these stark realities as well as the election of the country s first black president a growing African American middle class and the black authors and artists significantly contributing to America s cultural output Divided into six sections The African American Criminal in Culture and Media Slave Voices and Bodies in Poetry and Plays Representing African American Gender and Sexuality in Pop Culture and Society Black Cultural Production in Music and Dance Obama and the Politics of Race and Ongoing Realities and the Meaning of Blackness this book is an engaging collection of chapters varied in critical content and theoretical standpoints linked by their intellectual stimulation and fascination with African American life and questioning how and to what extent American culture and society is past race The chapters are united by an intertwined sense of progression and regression which addresses the diverse dynamics of continuity and change that have defined shifts in the African American experience over the past twenty years

The Anthem Companion to Norbert Elias Stephen Mennell,Alex Law,2023-08-08 The book presents an authoritative assessment of Norbert Elias 1897 1990 It recognizes Elias as one of the major contributors to the development of sociological tradition in the past century and charts the continuing relevance of his conception of sociology for contemporary society Only toward the end of his career as an academic did Elias's work begin to attract the attention of English speaking sociologists historians and scholars of cultural studies The book provides an authoritative and broad representation of Elias's oeuvre and work inspired by it While Elias is best known for his major study of The Civilizing Process the reach and subtle depths of Elias's conception of process sociology has been cemented more recently by the English language publication of Elias's collected work of 18 volumes The baton of process sociology is being passed on to further generations of sociologists Chapters from leading contributors outline the nature of the sociological practice of Elias and address fundamental questions of historical sociology democratization gender racialization processes and embodiment Later chapters highlight the contribution of process sociology for understanding developments in nation state and global sociology criminology art and education

New Interpretations of Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird and Go Set a Watchman Amy Mohr, Mark Olival-Bartley, 2019-05-30 Featuring essays from an international group of scholars this volume addresses Harper Lee's To Kill a Mockingbird 1960 the American literary classic and her controversial Go Set a Watchman 2015 The contributions include productive new interpretations from diverse critical angles including US literary and cultural history Southern studies sociological theory gender studies stylistic analysis translation and pedagogy With a balance of critical analysis and pedagogical approaches this provocative book will prove to be of particular interest to scholars seeking to reconcile the points of divergence in these two works For educators at the secondary and university levels the collection also offers current resources and perspectives on Lee's novels

It's Figuration, Groundly John McGreal, 2017-02-21 John McGreal's three new books It's Abstraction Concretely It's Figuration Groundly and It's Representation Really continue the It Series published by Matador since 2010 They constitute another stage in an artistic journey exploring the visual and aural dialectic of mark word and image that began over 25 years ago Emerging out of the first books on the Bibliograph published in 2016 initiated with It's Nothing Seriously these new texts retain some of the same structural features The Bibliographs contain the same focus on repetition and variation in meaning of their dominant motifs of representation abstraction and figuration which have framed philosophical discourse on epistemology and ontology in aesthetics their chance placement in each Bibliograph interspersed with one another displaying and enhancing similarities and differences At the same time these works constitute a development in the aesthetic form of the Bibliograph In earlier works on Nothing Absence and Silence it was just a question of finding and transferring given textual references from their source to construct their Bibliographs with the focus being on the strategic position of the latter within each book In these new works the concern has been with working on the line and shape of the references themselves with their enhanced spatial form as well as that of each Bibliograph as a whole In shaping and spacing the referential images the place of words and letters became as important as their semantic to read in a new way on diverse contemporary issues across conventional boundaries in the arts and sciences at several levels of physical psychical and social reproduction

book provides a critical engagement with the idea of the security society which has been the focus of so much attention in criminology and the social sciences more broadly. Security has been argued to constitute a new mode of social ordering displacing the disciplinary society that Foucault saw as characteristic of the liberal era. He saw a control society or risk society characteristic of Neo Liberalism in which the deviant behaviour of particular individuals as less important than general attempts to offset risk and reduce harm. Dodsworth argues that much of this literature is extraordinarily presentist in orientation, denying the long history of attempts to mitigate risk, prevent harm and manage security which have always been a part of the government of order. This book develops a critical history of security, a thematic analysis of debates about security and aspects of the security society which puts contemporary arguments and practices in dialogue with the texts and practices of the past. In doing so, the book develops a cultural analysis of the meanings of security and the way these meanings have been articulated in particular practical contexts in order to understand how the promise of security has so effectively captured the imagination and channeled the effective engagement of people throughout the modern period.
