Constructing The Erotic Sexual Ethics And Adolescent Girls:

Constructing the Erotic Barbara J. Blodgett, 2002 Barbara J Blodgett proposes a practical sexual ethic for adolescent girls based on a discourse of vulnerability and trust rather than one of erotic liberation Her work directly challenges feminist theologies of the erotic which seek to establish the erotic as unquestionably freeing and empowering Blodgett declares that inconsistent worlds of meaning surround girls moral deliberation about sexual activity despite their sincere yearning for guidance This ground breaking book Critiques feminist theologies of the erotic Draws upon actual narratives of adolescent girls about sexuality and romance Uses a psychoanalytic theory for Christian ethics Points the way to an alternative model of sexual ethics in theological ethics while factoring in the stark realities of gender power and culture Blodgett suggests relationships are either stabilized by the exercise of trust or friendly distrust Catholic Sexual Theology and Adolescent Girls Doris M. Kieser, 2015-06-08 This book explores the intersection in contemporary Western culture of Catholic sexual theology and adolescent female developmental and sexual experiences The voices of adolescent females so long silent in sexual theologies are given privilege here in the articulation of a normative theology Applying a feminist natural law framework the book engages both theoretical scholarship and practical evidence from psychological and other social sciences to inform sexual theology in the Catholic tradition Attending to gendered developmental and social contexts Doris Kieser explores adolescent females experiences of puberty menarche various sexual activities communities of support sexual desire and the pleasure and danger these realities reap She critically explores historical and traditional sexual theologies and prevailing social patriarchal and androcentric sexual attitudes through a feminist lens The author's attention to the voices of girls and women and her aim to see their sexual flourishing in particular and diverse social contexts yields a theology mindful of the rich complexities of female sexual desire pleasure and well being The result is an integrated sexual theology that grapples with the Catholic theological tradition feminist theory and theology and the embodied experiences of females For anyone who is invested in the lives and well being of adolescent females this work uncovers both barriers and boons to their sexual flourishing Erotic Attunement Cristina L. H. Traina, 2011-12-01 Heightened awareness of the problem of sexual abuse has led to deep anxiety over adults touching children in nearly any context Though our society has moved toward increasingly strict enforcement of this taboo studies have shown that young children need regular human contact and the benefits of breastfeeding have been widely extolled Exploring the complicated history of love desire gender sexuality parenthood and inequality Erotic Attunement probes the disquieting issue of how we can draw a clear line between natural affection toward children and perverse exploitation of them Cristina L H Traina demonstrates that we cannot determine what is wrong about sexual abuse without first understanding what is good about appropriate sensual affection Pondering topics such as the importance of touch in nurturing children the psychology of abuse and victimhood and recent ideologies of motherhood she argues that we must expand our philosophical and theological language of physical love and make a distinction between sexual love and erotic love Taking on theological and ethical arguments over the question of sexuality between unequals she arrives at the provocative conclusion that it can be destructive to completely bar eroticism from these relationships
