Constructions Writing Architecture:

The Architects Guide to Writing Bill Schmalz, The Images Publishing Group, 2014 There are a lot of good books available to help people write better They include dictionaries usage guides and various types of writers manuals and professional writers ought to have many of those books on their bookshelves But most architects and other design and construction professionals are not professional writers Instead they are people who spend a large part of their professional lives writing That s a big difference and that s where this book will help The Architect s Guide to Writing has been written not by an English major but by Bill Schmalz an architect who knows the kinds of documents his fellow professionals routinely have to write and understands the kinds of technical mistakes they often make in their writing This book is designed to meet the specific needs of design and construction professionals It s not going to waste their time with the things that most educated professionals know but it will help them with the things they don t know or are unsure of It s not a Chicago Manual sized encyclopaedic reference that includes everything any writer would ever need to know because architects don t need to know everything But what they do need to know and what they use every day in their professional lives has been assembled in this book

Writing About Architecture Alexandra Lange, 2012-03-20 Extraordinary architecture addresses so much more than mere practical considerations It inspires and provokes while creating a seamless experience of the physical world for its users It is the rare writer that can frame the discussion of a building in a way that allows the reader to see it with new eyes Writing About Architecture is a handbook on writing effectively and critically about buildings and cities Each chapter opens with a reprint of a significant essay written by a renowned architecture critic followed by a close reading and discussion of the writer s strategies Lange offers her own analysis using contemporary examples as well as a checklist of questions at the end of each chapter to help guide the writer This important addition to the Architecture Briefs series is based on the author s design writing courses at New York University and the School of Visual Arts Lange also writes a popular online column for Design Observer and has written for Dwell Metropolis New York magazine and The New York Times Writing About Architecture includes analysis of critical writings by Ada Louise Huxtable Lewis Mumford Herbert Muschamp Michael Sorkin Charles Moore Frederick Law Olmsted and Jane Jacobs Architects covered include Marcel Breuer Diller Scofidio Renfro Field Operations Norman Foster Frank Gehry Frederick Law Olmsted SOM Louis Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright
