The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis (Amsac) Joe L. Rempson, 2016-03-12 The African American Male School Adaptability Crisis AMSAC cannot be solved by the school alone It is a race problem which can only be solved if we black males provide the leadership in tackling our three major demons which now mainly account for the problem IQ lag fatherless families crime AMSAC had its origin about 100 years ago when after the death of Washington DuBois gained ascendancy in our African American Garden of Eden and replaced Washingtons brains property and character gospel with a civil rights agenda That agenda has led to a civil rights fixation and our second bondage Victimology wherein being the victim has become part of our core identity and made us psychological slaves Rather than being proud and self reliant disproportionately we have come to see ourselves as victims who are entitled to system help and special treatment This bondage and it is a bondage vitiates our manhood and the energy and drive required to pursue the adaptation pathway paved by Washington but demonized by DuBois Return to that pathway and we can confront and conquer AMSAC and our three major demons Guided by history and the research evidence this book details how Its 20 chapters make for long reading but just by reading the first and last chapters you can get the message The motto of the proposed evidence based experimental program the African American Male Career Pathway Program AMCAP A special appeal is made to black athletes and entertainers to help propagate this motto and support the proposed high school student clubs Student AMCAPs in its implementation Educating African American Males Olatokunbo S.

Fashola,2005-03-23 Bringing unique perspectives from the field this resource offers multiple perspectives on African American male achievement from top scholars in the field of urban education In a Classroom of Their Own Keisha

Lindsay,2018-07-02 Many advocates of all black male schools ABMSs argue that these institutions counter black boys racist emasculation in white overly female classrooms This argument challenges racism and perpetuates antifeminism Keisha Lindsay explains the complex politics of ABMSs by situating these schools within broader efforts at neoliberal education reform and within specific conversations about both endangered black males and a boy crisis in education Lindsay also demonstrates that intersectionality long considered feminist is in fact a politically fluid framework As such it represents a potent tool for advancing many political agendas including those of ABMSs supporters who champion antiracist education for black boys while obscuring black girls own race and gender based oppression in school Finally Lindsay theorizes a particular means by which black men and other groups can form antiracist and feminist coalitions even when they make claims about their experiences that threaten bridge building The way forward Lindsay shows allows disadvantaged groups to navigate the racial and gendered politics that divide them in pursuit of productive and progressive solutions Far thinking and boldly argued In a Classroom of Their Own explores the dilemmas faced by professionals and parents in search of equitable schooling for all students black boys and otherwise School Counseling to Close Opportunity Gaps Cheryl

Holcomb-McCoy,2022-02-08 Create conditions that lead to success for ALL students and confront conditions that create opportunity gaps School counselors can play a powerful role in closing opportunity gaps and addressing the social emotional and academic needs of students This new edition of a groundbreaking bestseller shows school counselors how to incorporate principles of social justice antiracism equity and advocacy into their practice Written by Cheryl Holcomb McCoy university professor and advocate of transformational change in school counseling this book addresses the reasons why some students are more likely to encounter challenges at school due to racism sexism heterosexism and classism It includes Vignettes strategies activities and reflective individual and group study questions A framework for how school counselors can mitigate the impact of negative factors that hamper academic performance and healthy development especially among students of color Six functions of school counselors that move schools toward more just practices and ultimately to higher test scores and increased student achievement Written for both preservice and in service school counselors and those who support them this essential guide prepares readers to take an active role in creating equitable conditions for success for all students

School Counseling for Black Male Student Success in 21st Century Urban Schools Malik S. Henfield,Ahmad R. Washington,2015-11-01 Discussions and research related to the salience of Black male student needs and development in relation to their general success and well being is well documented in many fields Indeed many studies have found that healthy masculine identity development is associated with a number of positive outcomes for males in general including Black males In school counseling literature however this discussion has been relatively absent particularly regarding those students living in urban contexts Indeed research devoted to the study of Black males in the school counseling literature focuses almost exclusively on race and issues associated with its social construction with only cursory if any attention given to their masculine identity development as a function of living in urban communities and attending urban schools Based on this lack of information it is probably a safe assumption that intentional systematic culturally relevant efforts to assist Black males in developing healthy achievement and masculine identities based on their unique personal social academic experiences and future career goals are not being applied by school counselors concerned with meeting students needs School counselors are in a unique position nonetheless to lend their considerable expertise insights training and skills to improving life outcomes among Black males a population who are consistently in positions of risk according to a number of quality of life indicators Without knowledge and awareness of Black males masculine identity development in urban areas coupled with the requisite skills to influence the myriad factors that enhance and impede healthy development in such environments they are missing out on tremendous opportunities which other professions appear to understand and quite frankly seem to take more seriously As such this book proposes to accomplish two specific goals 1 Highlight the plight of Black males with specific emphasis on the ecological components of their lives in relation to current school culture and trends 2 Encourage school counselors to give more thought to Black male identity development that takes into consideration differential experiences in society as a whole and schools in particular as a function of the intersection of their race as well as their gender The first rationale for this book then is to highlight the plight of Black males with specific emphasis on the ecological components of their lives in relation to current school culture and trends e g standards based accountability practices in urban environments However I recognize the role of school counselors has never been fully integrated into educational reform programs As such their positions are often unregulated and determined by people in positions of power who do not understand their training job specific standards and thus potential impact on the lives of Black male students As a result their vast potential to develop strong interventions designed to address the myriad racial and masculine factors that serve to enhance and impede Black males academic achievement is often unrealized Therefore the second reason for this special issue is to include the scholarship of professional school counselors and counselor educators with policy change in mind Scholars will be invited to contribute manuscripts that explore race masculinity and academic achievement in relation to the role of school counselors This is designed to encourage school counselors and counselor educators to give more thought to Black male identity development that takes into consideration differential experiences in society as a whole and schools in particular as a function of the intersection of their race as well as their gender Culturally Responsive

Pedagogy Dennisha Murff, 2020-01-01 In Culturally Responsive Pedagogy Promising Practices for African American Male Students I take us on a journey into teachers perceptions of the impact of implementing culturally responsive pedagogical CRP practices on the student learning outcomes of African American male students The book also helps to identify teachers perceptions of the CRP strategies needed in the elementary school setting to address the diverse needs of African American male students I share the story of educators from a large diverse elementary school in an urban school district who have made it their mission to provide African American male students with culturally responsive learning environments where they can thrive Throughout the book I make it clear that the implementation of CRP practices has a direct impact on the student learning outcomes of African American male students The book provides additional research into the existing literature on CRP practices Through a case study approach my work allows for additional insight into the potential impact of CRP practices on the student learning outcomes of African American male students in an urban elementary school setting The book takes us on a journey of highs and lows ups and downs and failures and successes Throughout the book rich detailed stories and descriptions are shared based on classroom observations interviews and student learning outcomes collected from three elementary school teachers from diverse backgrounds and various years of experience Classroom observations were conducted using the Culturally Responsive Instruction Observation Protocol CRIOP instrument to assess the practices being implemented in the classroom As I focused on the hard realities that face African American male students in today s classrooms I identified six emerging themes including one overarching emerging theme and three promising practices that surfaced during my research The CRP practices implemented proved helpful toward increasing learning outcomes for African American male students and ultimately closing the achievement gap As an African American educator I have been able to see how the lack of culturally responsive practices creates learning obstacles for African American male students These learning obstacles continue to plague a group that has been historically marginalized in our society The implementation of CRP practices provides educators with an avenue to remedy a social justice issue that has plagued our nation for years The information shared in this book can be beneficial for all those invested in closing the achievement gap and increasing student learning outcomes through the use of culturally responsive practices including pre service and in service teachers administrators caregivers community advocates educational researchers and policy makers
