Guided Reading

Postwar America

1. How does each of the authors describe the problems associated with postwar problems?

1. Problems: Millions of returning veterans and millions of youth are finding themselves without jobs.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed the United States Housing Act, guaranteeing veterans a year's income if unemployed, benefits while job hunting, or offered internment, federally guaranteed loans.

2. Problems: Severe housing shortage.

Solutions offered by developers such as William Levitt	Levitt used assembly-line techniques through production houses, offering houses for small residential communities called suburbs for less than $17,500.
Solutions offered by the Truman and Eisenhower administrations	The Truman and Eisenhower administrations provided financial support for urban renewal and housing, working with the private business.

3. Problems: Severe inflation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration and Congress	Congress passed Truman Administration recommendations, including limits on the economy, controls on prices, wages, and rents.

4. Problems: Labor unions that threaten to supply the nation.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	Truman's administration took the striking workers under federal protection, ordered to accept the job. He instructed the federal government to union that threat, and threatened to take control of the industry, for the very industry (union) to work for them.

5. Problems: Discrimination and racial violence.

Solutions offered by the Truman administration	The Truman administration passed an anti-lynching law, a fair employment board, a housing department, a government civil rights commission, integration of the armed forces, ordered set aside for discrimination in the federal government employment.

6. Evaluate the significance of leaders in, Eisenhower, and Paul Dean.

Leaders	The leaders were asked to make some decisions, join the struggle, collected a severe housing shortage.
