Death Mourning And Burial A Cross Cultural Reader:

Death, Mourning, and Burial Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2017-04-26 The definitive reference on the anthropology of death and dying expanded with new contributions covering everything from animal mourning to mortuary cannibalism Few subjects stir the imagination more than the study of how people across cultures deal with death and dying This expanded second edition of the internationally bestselling Death Mourning and Burial offers cross cultural readings that span the period from dying to afterlife considering approaches to this transition as a social process and exploring the great variations of cultural responses to death Exploring new content including organ transplantation institutionalized care for the dying HIV AIDs animal mourning and biotechnology this text retains classic readings from the first edition and is enhanced by sixteen new articles and two new sections which provide increased breadth and depth for readers Death Mourning and Burial Second Edition is divided into eight parts reflecting the social trajectory of death conceptualizations of death death dying and care grief and mourning mortuary rituals and remembrance and regeneration Sections are introduced through foundational texts which provide the ideal introduction to this diverse field It is essential reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying as well as violence terrorism war state terror organ theft and mortuary rituals A thoroughly revised edition of this classic anthology featuring twenty three new articles two new sections and three reformulated sections Updated to include current topics including organ transplantation institutionalized care for the dying HIV AIDs animal mourning and biotechnology Must reading for anyone concerned with issues of death and dying as well as violence terrorism war state terror organ theft and mortuary rituals Serves as a text for anthropology classes and provides a genuinely cross cultural perspective to all those studying death and dying An Anthropology of Disappearance Laura Huttunen, Gerhild

Perl, 2023-09-15 All over the world people disappear from their families communities and the state's bureaucratic gaze as victims of oppressive regimes or while migrating along clandestine routes This volume brings together scholars who engage ethnographically with such disappearances in various cultural social and political contexts It takes an anthropological perspective on questions about human life and death absence and presence rituals and mourning liminality and structures citizenship and personhood as well as agency and power The chapters explore the political dimension of disappearances and address methodological epistemological and ethical challenges of researching disappearances and the disappeared The combination of disappearance through political violence crime voluntary disappearance and migration make this book a unique combination A Companion to the Anthropology of Death Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 2018-04-03 A thought provoking examination of death dying and the afterlife Prominent scholars present their most recent work about mortuary rituals grief and mourning genocide cyclical processes of life and death biomedical developments and the materiality of human corpses in this unique and illuminating book Interrogating our most common practices surrounding death the authors ask such questions as How does the state wrest away control over the dead from bereaved relatives Why do many mourners refuse to cut their emotional ties to the dead and nurture lasting bonds Is death a final condition or can human remains acquire agency The book is a refreshing reassessment of these issues and practices a source of theoretical inspiration in the study of death With contributions written by an international team of experts in their fields A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is presented in six parts and covers such subjects as Governing the Dead in Guatemala After Death Communications ADCs in North America Cryonic Suspension in the Secular Age Blood and Organ Donation in China The Fragility of Biomedicine and more A Companion to the Anthropology of Death is a comprehensive and accessible volume and an ideal resource for senior undergraduate and graduate students in courses such as Anthropology of Death Medical Anthropology Anthropology of Violence Anthropology of the Body and Political Anthropology Written by leading international scholars in their fields A comprehensive survey of the most recent empirical research in the anthropology of death A fundamental critique of the early 20th century founding fathers of the anthropology of death Cross cultural texts from tribal and industrial societies The collection is of interest to anyone concerned with the consequences of the state and massive violence on life and death

Mortality, Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia Myrna Tonkinson, Victoria Burbank, 2017-03-02 Drawing on ethnography of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities across Australia Mortality Mourning and Mortuary Practices in Indigenous Australia focuses on the current ways in which indigenous people confront and manage various aspects of death The contributors employ their contemporary and long term anthropological fieldwork with indigenous Australians to construct rich accounts of indigenous practices and beliefs and to engage with questions relating to the frequent experience of death within the context of unprecedented change and premature mortality The volume makes use of extensive empirical material to address questions of inequality with specific reference to mortality thus contributing to the anthropology of indigenous Australia whilst attending to its theoretical methodological and political concerns As such it will appeal not only to anthropologists but also to those interested in social inequality the social and psychosocial consequences of death and the conceptualization and manipulation of the relationships between the living and the dead

Passages and Afterworlds Maarit Forde, Yanique Hume, 2018-11-15 The contributors to Passages and Afterworlds explore death and its rituals across the Caribbean drawing on ethnographic theories shaped by a deep understanding of the region's long history of violent encounters exploitation and cultural diversity Examining the relationship between living bodies and the spirits of the dead the contributors investigate the changes in cosmologies and rituals in the cultural sphere of death in relation to political developments state violence legislation policing and identity politics Contributors address topics that range from the ever evolving role of divinized spirits in Haiti and the contemporary mortuary practice of Indo Trinidadians to funerary ceremonies in rural Jamaica and ancestor cults in Maroon culture in Suriname Questions of alterity difference and hierarchy underlie these discussions of how racial cultural and class differences have been deployed in ritual practice and how such rituals have been governed in the colonial and postcolonial
