Austin, 2012-09-14 Exemplary Ambivalence in Late Nineteenth Century Spanish America Narrating Creole Subjectivity casts new light on the role of exemplary narrative in nineteenth century Spanish America highlighting the multiplicity of didactic writing and its dynamic relationship with readers as interpretive agents Drawing on literary and historical models of creole heterogeneity Austin's study probes the unstable social and ethnic fictions of the creole elite as they portray themselves through the flawed canvas of exemplary discourse Exemplary Ambivalence examines creole subjectivity through postcolonial and Latin American theoretical lenses to show that Spanish American creole subjects always multiple reveal their ideological ambivalence through exemplary narrative This study examines a cross section of canonical and lesser known texts written toward the end of the nineteenth century by authors across Spanish America including Eugenio Cambaceres Argentina Jos Asunción Silva Colombia Jos Martí Cuba Clorinda Matto de Turner Peru and Juana Manuela Gorriti Argentina These texts range from realist and modernist novels to a cookbook of multiple authorship and engage issues of nationalism citizenship gender indigenous rights and liberal ideologies within the historical context of Spanish America's weakened democracies and modernizing economies at the end of the nineteenth century Austin's research fills a critical gap within studies of the nineteenth century in Spanish America as it explores the inconsistencies of exemplary texts and emphasizes the forms sources and implications of creole ideological and narrative multiplicity By recognizing the inherent ambivalence of exemplary discourse along with creole writing and reading subjectivities Exemplary Ambivalence opens fresh perspectives on canonical texts while it also engages some of the non canonical hybrid and fragmentary texts of nineteenth century reading culture James M. Cain David Madden, Kristopher Meholksy, 2011-04-28 James M Cain wrote some of the grittiest novels in American literature including such classics as The Postman Always Rings Twice, Double Indemnity and Mildred Pierce. James M. Cain's Hard Boiled Mythmaker is a critical overview of the author's life work and legacy. An updated and expanded edition of two of David Madden's scholarly works on Cain, this new book improves upon the previous works by collecting the most essential writing on Cain by Madden into one volume. In addition to melding existing material, this work contains updated and new material including fresh commentaries on later books such as Rainbow's End, Cloud Nine and The Enchanted Isle as well as later film adaptations including Butterfly. It also responds to 40 years worth of criticism on Cain and reevaluates his influence. Providing an overview of all of Cain's fiction, including an analysis of the major themes of his entire literary career, the book also describes Cain's impact on and importance in 20th century culture, film in particular. In addition to a biographical summary and thematic outline of Cain's nearly 50 year career, Madden and Mecholsky examine how Cain's works explore the nightmare consequences of the persistent American dream. Finally, Madden and Mecholsky consider Cain's technical innovations of the novel and survey the major film adaptations of Cain's novels. With its significant in-depth analysis and a foreword by Edgar award winning author Max Allan Collins, this volume will be of interest to Cain scholars as well as anyone interested in 20th century American literature and film.

A Gustave Flaubert Encyclopedia Laurence M. Porter, 2001-03-30

Gustave Flaubert is probably the most famous novelist of nineteenth century France and his best known work Madame Bovary is read in numerous comparative literature and French courses. His fiction set the standard to which other authors turned to learn their craft and his cult of art and his unrelenting search for stylistic perfection inspired many later writers such as Maupassant, Proust, Conrad, Faulkner and Joyce. His denunciation of materialistic corrupt society, his fascination with altered states of consciousness, his oscillation between metaphysical longings and a radical nihilism, and his deep seated mistrust of the adequacy of words themselves anticipate the works of contemporary authors. This reference is a convenient guide to his life and writings. Included in this volume are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on Flaubert's individual works and major characters, historical persons and events that shaped his life, the themes that run throughout his writings, the critical approaches employed by scholars studying his works and related topics of interest. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and most close with a brief bibliography. All of his major works are treated at length and the volume mentions nearly every unpublished project of his that has a title. The book concludes with a selected general bibliography of major studies.
