Why Are So Many Students of Color in Special Education? Beth Harry,Janette Klingner,2022

Bringing to life the voices of children families and school personnel this bestseller describes in detail the school climates and social processes that place many children of color at risk of being assigned inappropriate disability labels Now in its third edition this powerful ethnographic study examines the placement of Black and Hispanic students in the subjectively determined high incidence disability categories of special education The authors present compelling narratives representing the range of experiences faced by culturally and linguistically diverse students who fall under the liminal shadow of perceived disability This edition updates the literature on disproportionality highlighting the deeply embedded and systemic nature of this decades old pattern in which reforms represent mere shifts across disability categories while disproportionality remains Applying lenses of cultural historical and critical disability theories this edition expands on the authors previous theoretical insights with updated recommendations for improving educational practice teacher training and policy renewal

Book Features A unique examination of the school based contributors to disproportionality based on research conducted in a large culturally diverse school district Holistic views of the referral and placement process detailing students trajectories across 4 years from initial instruction to referral evaluation and placement in special education An update on the patterns and literature related to disproportionality Analysis of the cultural historical nature of disproportionality and the socially constructed nature of the high incidence disability categories Recommendations for changing the conceptualization of children s learning difficulties moving away from the presumption of children s intrinsic deficits toward evaluations based on human variation

Race, Equity, and Education Pedro Noguera, Jill Pierce, Roey Ahram, 2015-11-14 This powerful and timely analysis takes stock of race and education sixty years after the historic Brown vs Board of Education decision This volume examines education as one of the most visible markers for racial disparities in the US as well as one of its most visible frontiers for racial justice Featuring original research educators insights and perspectives from communities of color it documents the complex impact of social educational policy on social progress Chapters on charter schools curriculum content performance measurement and disproportionalities in special education referrals shed light on entrenched inequities that must be confronted The book also makes it clear that leveling the playing field calls for not only better schools but also addressing pervasive social problems such as poverty and housing segregation Included in the coverage School Policy is Housing Policy Deconcentrating Disadvantage to Address the Achievement Gap Charter Schooling Race Politics and an Appeal to History The Data Quality Movement for the Asian American and Pacific Islander community an unresolved civil rights issue Critical Ethnic Studies in High School Classrooms Academic Achievement via Social Action Mexican American Educational Stagnation The Role of Generational Status Parental Narratives and Educator Mes sages p pp Pinpointing crucial issues and opportunities for solutions Race Equity and Education has immediate salience for educators and researchers studying the intersection of race and education

Affirming Disability Janet Story Sauer, Zachary Rossetti, 2019-12-16 Providing both a theoretical framework and practical strategies this resource will help teachers counselors and related service providers develop understanding and empathy to improve outcomes for culturally and linguistically diverse CLD students with disabilities The text features narrative portraits of six immigrant families and their children with disabilities including their cultural histories and personal perspectives regarding assessment diagnosis Individualized Education Program IEP meetings and other instances in which families engaged with the special education process Using guiding questions for reflection and Talk Back comments from preservice students throughout the text readers are encouraged to reflect on their own positionality and to develop nuanced and dynamic understandings of CLD children youth and families countering persistent and stereotypical deficit views Book Features In depth descriptions of immigrant family ecologies Strategies for challenging a system that has been implicated in the over representation of minorities in special education Artwork photographs and other materials from students and families Talk Back sections featuring personal reflections and feedback on the portrait narratives from preservice teachers Questions at the end of each portrait narrative chapter to facilitate meaningful classroom discussions A personal action plan framework to guide improvements in cultural competence and inclusive special education practices
