

EXAMINATION OF CONSCIENCE: ADULTS 20+

About Confession with the Priest Words of Jesus to Sister Faustina (Divine Mercy Diary)

"When you go to confession, to this fountain of mercy, the Blood and Water which came forth from My Heart always flow down upon your soul...in the Tribunal of Mercy [the sacrament of Reconciliation]...the greatest miracles take place and are incessantly repeated...Here the misery of the soul meets the God of Mercy.

Come with faith to the feet of My Representative... I myself am waiting there for you. I am only hidden by the priest... I Myself act in your soul... Make your confession before Me. The person of the priest is, for Me, only a screen. Never analyze what sort of a priest it is that I am making use of; open your soul in confession as you would to Me, and I will fill in for him.

Were a soul like a dead color, so that from a human standpoint there was no hope of restoration and even if it had already been lost, it is not so with Me. The miracle of Divine Mercy restores that soul in full... From this fount of mercy souls draw graces solely with the vessel of trust. If their trust is great, there is no limit to My generosity."

Our Lord has emphasized the need for us to go to confession and to receive Him in the Holy Eucharist in order to obtain the greatest gifts of His Mercy. We as Catholics have the source of Mercy in the confessional and in the Precious Blood of the Eucharist. Let us proclaim this message.

Address of St John Paul II, March 27, 2004

It would be an illusion to want to strive for holiness in accordance with the vocation that God has given to each one of us without frequently and fervently receiving this sacrament of conversion and sanctification.

We will never be holy enough not to need this sacramental purification: humble confession, made lovingly, gives rise to an ever more delicate purity in our service to God and the motivation that sustains it... Gradually, from confession to confession, the believer experiences an ever deeper communion with the merciful Lord to the point of fully identifying with Him, which one finds in that perfect 'life in Christ' in which true holiness consists.

Apply the following to the time since your last Sacramental Confession or if you remember something not confessed in the past.

[1] I am the Lord your God. You shall not have strange gods before me.

- Do I give God time every day in prayer?
- Do I seek to love Him with my whole heart?
- Have I been involved with superstitious practices, new age, or fortune tellers or the occult?
- Do I consider myself to God's Word as I ought by the Church?
- Have I ever taken communion in a state of mortal sin?
- Have I ever deliberately told a lie in confession or have I withheld a mortal sin from the priest in confession?

[2] You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.

- Have I used God's name in vain; lightly or carelessly?
- Have I been angry with God?
- Have I insulted a priest or consecrated religious person or abused a sacred object?
- Have I spoken about a priest or consecrated religious person in a derogatory manner?
- Have I damaged the reputation of anyone?

[3] Remember to keep holy the Lord's Day.

- Have I deliberately missed Mass on Sundays or Holy Days of Obligation?
- Have I tried to observe Sunday as a day of prayer and rest?
- Do I do needless work on Sunday?

[4] Honor your Father and your Mother.

- Do I treat my parents with honor?
- Have I neglected my duties toward anyone?
- Have I given my family good religious example?
- Do I try to bring peace into every setting in my life?
- Do I care for my aged and infirm relatives?

Catholic Answers To Contemporary Questions:

Catholic Answers to Contemporary Questions Daniel L. Lowery, 1991 Handbook for Today's Catholic , 1991

Agreeable Agreement Minna Hietamäki, 2011-10-20 In recent bilateral ecumenical dialogue the aim of the dialogue has been to reach some form of doctrinal consensus The three major chapters of the book discuss the variety of forms of doctrinal consensus found in ecumenical dialogues among Anglicans Lutherans and Roman Catholics In general the dialogue documents argue for agreement consensus based on commonality or compatibility Each of the three dialogue processes has specific characteristics and formulates its argument in a unique way The Lutheran Roman Catholic dialogue has a particular interest in hermeneutical questions and proposes various forms of differentiated or perspectival forms of consensus The Anglican Roman Catholic dialogue emphasises the correctness of interpretations The documents consciously look towards a common future not the separated past Defending Catholicism James S. Anderson, 2019-07-11 Hosts of helpful Catholic apologetic books currently exist however a concise treatment that specifically targets all the major Protestant objections in an easily accessible manner is hard to find Anderson's fourth volume offers such It provides readers with salient counterpoints for each objection and most often from the very source Protestants use to deny important aspects of the faith the Bible Thus without even realizing it Protestants implicitly accept the Catholic faith as they accept the very texts the faith provided them Important issues such as these are pointed out throughout the book It is a must read for Catholics seeking to address Protestant questions and for Protestants desiring to understand why Catholicism claims to be biblical through and through This work cogently articulates how Catholicism is biblical and just how often Protestant positions are untenable

From Page to Proclamation Clare Schwantes, 2024-11-19 This pioneering work invites readers to embark on a transformative journey through the heart of liturgical worship and scriptural proclamation It introduces a new tier to biblical hermeneutics exploring the ways in which the liturgical event and the ecclesial community color the interpretation of Scripture Weaving together insights from Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics with the rich tapestry of Catholic liturgy the author proposes that the meaning of a proclaimed Scripture passage emerges not from an analysis of the text itself but in the vibrant interplay of multiple horizons Bible Lectionary homilist and worshiper Through a lens of play and festival the intricate relationship between tradition and contemporary worship is explored showcasing how the sensory richness of the Catholic liturgy shapes the interpretation of Scripture It challenges readers to view the Lectionary as a living text intimately connected to the worshiping assembly and the modern world This thought provoking work offers both theoretical insights and practical implications for scholars clergy and worshipers alike It inspires a fresh perspective that resonates with the contemporary Catholic experience guiding worshipers toward a profound engagement with Scripture in the dynamic event of liturgical celebration The Cumulative Book Index , 1928 A world list of books in the English language Monasticism in Modern Times Isabelle Jonveaux, Stefania Palmisano, 2016-10-14 This book presents a broad sociological perspective on the contemporary issues facing Christian monasticism Since the founding work of Max Weber the sociology of monasticism has received little attention However the field is now being revitalized by some new research Focusing on Christian monks and nuns the contributors explore continuity and discontinuity with the past in what superficially might appear a monolithic tradition Contributors speak not only about monasticism in Europe and the United States but also in Africa and Latin America a different landscape where the question of recruitment does not figure among issues considered as problematic Hope & Glory Juan Alfaro,1995 Mental Health, Spirituality, and Religion in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2014-07-28 This volume continues the critical exploration of fundamental issues in the medieval and early modern world here concerning mental health spirituality melancholy mystical visions medicine and well being The contributors who originally had presented their research at a symposium at The University of Arizona in May 2013 explore a wide range of approaches and materials pertinent to these issues taking us from the early Middle Ages to the eighteenth century capping the volume with some reflections on the relevance of religion today Lapidary sciences matter here as much as medical psychological research combined with literary and art historical approaches The premodern understanding of mental health is not taken as a miraculous panacea for modern problems but the contributors suggest that medieval and early modern writers scientists and artists commanded a considerable amount of arcane sometimes curious and speculative knowledge that promises to be of value and relevance even for us today once again Modern palliative medicine finds for instance intriguing parallels in medieval word magic and the mystical perspectives encapsulated highly productive alternative perceptions of the macrocosm and microcosm that promise to be insightful and important also for the post modern world

Seeing the Light Samuel Schuman,2010-01-18 Samuel Schuman examines the place of religious colleges and universities particularly evangelical Protestant institutions in contemporary American higher education Many faith based schools are flourishing They have rigorous academic standards impressive student recruitment ambitious philanthropic goals and well maintained campuses and facilities Yet much of the U S higher education community ignores them or accords them little respect Seeing the Light considers instead what can be learned from the viability of these institutions The book begins with a history of post secondary U S education from the perspective of the religious traditions from which it arose After focusing briefly on nonevangelical institutions Schuman next looks at three Roman Catholic institutions the College of New Rochelle Villanova University and Thomas Aquinas College He then profiles evangelical colleges and universities in detail discovering the factors contributing to their success These institutions range from nationally recognized to little known from rich to poor with both highly selective and open admission requirements Interviews with key administrators faculty and students reveal the challenges the successes and the goals of these institutions Schuman concludes that these schools Baylor University Anderson University New Saint Andrews College Calvin College North Park University George Fox University Westmont College Oral Roberts University Northwestern College and Wheaton College and others like them offer important and timely lessons for the broader higher education community
