Chen Zhen Without Going Internationalized:

Chen Zhen Li Qi, 2016-04-01 Chen Zhen 1955 2000 is largely recognized as one of the most important artists of the global art scene His work thrived from his singular and intense life experience of migrating and working across different continents and cultures The recent exhibition at the Rockbund Art Museum in Chen s native city of Shanghai reflected on his lifework at once unique and complex critical and optimistic and its attempts to provide innovative responses to the diverse challenges of the changing world from the end of the Cold War to the rise of of global capitalism and new geopolitical conflicts Chen proposed to constantly reexamine the realities and histories of what he viewed as an exciting new world full of problems like a giant with an overmuscle body and an exhausted heart This catalogue presents an art historical angle on Chen Zhen s unique way of questioning his experience of globalization through art It includes documentation of the eponymous exhibition at Rockbund Art Museum May 30 October 7 2015 along with detailed sketches of both existing and unrealized projects

Copublished with Rockbund Art Museum Shanghai Contributors Larys Frogier Hou Hanru The Spirit of Individualism Lansheng Zhang, 2023-02-02 This book is about avant garde art in Shanghai in the 1980s which challenges the narrative in the current discourse on the appearance of contemporary art in China Offering fresh perspectives and new insights into the art and the artists of this period the book includes critical events in Shanghai that will attract the serious attention of art professionals and collectors The emergence of the Shanghai art scene in the 1980s mirrors the revitalisation of Shanghai that was tasked to lead China s economic development trajectory onto the world stage Shanghai with its semi colonial political economic and cultural history including the strong legacy of the early twentieth century modernist art movement has played a vital role in China s modernisation and presents itself as a unique case in the evolution of contemporary art in China

Chen Zhen Zhen Chen, Ilse Lafer, Gerald Matt, 2007 Chen Zhen was born in Shanghai in 1955 and died in Paris in December 2000 Since his early passing interest in his artistic production has anything but waned he is increasingly visible as both an irreplaceable talent unto himself and a missing piece in the increasingly widely acclaimed Chinese avant garde His admirers have founded the Association of the Friends of Chen Zhen whose roster now includes the late Harald Szeemann Hans Ulrich Obrist designer Agn s B and many prominent artists from Asia Europe and the United States With the encouragement of the Association and other allies and fans Chen Zhen s work has been featured in international exhibitions including U S solo shows at the Institute of Contemporary Art in Boston and at P S 1 New York This volume makes available for the first time the sketches and proposals for projects left unrealized at the time of his death allowing viewers to trace the trajectory his work might have taken These glimpses of his working process offer insight into the ideas that drove him and translate the visual and physical strategies viewers have seen in finished work into his own French and English A proposal for a labyrinth expresses the desire to reach the sublime spontaneously the nature and the human spirituality to reorganize the way of looking at the surrounding s and to raise the dream of tomorrow He succeeded without even leaving the drawing

China's Music Industry Unplugged Zhen Troy Chen, 2021-09-13 This research book is the first of its kind to conduct an interdisciplinary research on the recent and dramatic developments in China's music industries with a particular focus on business models copyright protection and artist compensation The monograph explores and discusses proper business models through which revenue can be generated and maintained in a changing copyright climate and transforming business environment It also discusses how musicians can be fairly compensated in the online platform economy informed by social entrepreneurship This book is distinctive in the sense that it explores the intersection of cultural and creative industries legal studies business studies and new media It uses a qualitative and mixed method approach to study business innovations and institutions in the making in the second largest economy which is also gaining cultural and political significance around the world The Internationalisation of the Labour Question Stefano Bellucci, Holger Weiss, 2019-11-26 This edited collection is a global history of workers organisations since 1919 the year when the International Labour Organisation ILO the Comintern and the International Federation of Trade Unions were formed This historical moment represents a caesura in labour history as it epitomises the beginning of what the editors and the contributors in this book call the internationalisation of the labour question The case studies in this centenary volume analyse the relationship between global workers organisations and the new ideological confrontation between liberal capitalism socialism and communism since the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia Workers organisations trade unions in particular grew in importance and managed to organise internationally forming alliances cemented by ideology and sustained by international institutional bodies or centrals In the nascent capitalist versus communist struggle trade unions thrived Is it mere coincidence that today's decline of unionism coincides with the end of ideological antagonism This book emphasises important global labour issues such as gender as well as international workers histories from Latin America Asia and Africa Chinese Law: Context and Transformation Jianfu Chen, 2015-12-22 Eight years of changes in China have passed since the publication of the previous highly successful edition of this book These changes have not just been about economic development Among the many transformations there has been another quiet peaceful and largely successful but far from perfect revolution in the area of law whose deficiencies have been more often mercilessly examined and documented than have its historical achievements and significance This legal revolution is the subject matter of the present book Like the previous edition it examines the historical and politico economic context in which Chinese law has developed and transformed focusing on the underlying factors and justifications for changes It attempts to sketch the main trends in legal modernisation in China offering an outline of the main features of contemporary Chinese law and a clearer understanding of its nature from a developmental perspective It offers comprehensive coverage of topics such as legal culture and modern law reform constitutional law legal institutions law making administrative law criminal law criminal procedure law civil law property family law contracts law on business entities securities bankruptcy intellectual property law on foreign investment and trade and implementation of law Fully revised updated and considerably expanded this edition of Chinese Law Context and Transformation is a valuable and important resource for researchers policy makers and teachers alike Internationalization Of China's Privately Owned Enterprises: Determinants And Pattern Selection Wen Xiao,Liyun Liu,2015-07-13 Since China's adoption of the go global strategy more and more of China's privately owned enterprises have focused on outward foreign direct investment and by doing so they have become the major market participants in China's internationalization process This book presents authoritative academic and professional insights into the determinants of internationalization of China's indigenous privately owned enterprises The case studies in depth interviews and investigations in this book will capture the interest of the readers and provide them with the background material and understanding of the determinants and possible pattern selection for internationalization of China's privately owned enterprises 黄都,2006 Essays by Huang Du and Julie M Segraves
