| Postwar economic, demographic, and technological changes had a far-reaching impact on American society, politics, and the environment. | Truman and the Cold War, 1945-1952...WWII made the U.S. go from an isolationist country to a major leader in world affairs along with possessing an incredibly strong military. The end of the war would result in many American soldiers returning to a normal life with a good and fixed economy. Despite this in the presidency under Truman, a rising tension between the U.S. and the Soviet Union would occur known as the Cold War. | Explain how living through the Great Depression and the rationing of WWII war effort impacted the state of the economy when soldiers returned home in 1945.                                                                                                                                                                   |
