Innovations in Guarantees for Development Romina Bandura, Sundar R. Ramanujam, 2019-11-29 Bilateral and multilateral development agencies use guarantees in order to reduce investors exposure to risks and to attract private capital to developing countries A guarantee is a legally binding agreement under which the guarantor agrees to pay part or all of the amount due on a loan or other financial instrument in the event of non payment Across the developing world there are places where having access to the right guarantee product will enable investments that would otherwise have been blocked where the returns are there but the risks involved simply exceed market tolerances or where regulations limit investors ability to bear risk These opportunities are waiting to be seized by bilateral development agencies and development finance institutions DFIs who have the flexibility to innovate Multilateral development banks MDBs are the dominant providers of guarantees in certain market segments where their ability to influence government behavior and to reduce rather than merely reallocate risks on the ground gives them a natural advantage That said their accounting practices treatment by regulators and business models can also constrain them In other market segments specialized guarantee providers or DFIs can create tailored guarantees pricing them in a way that creates a commercially appealing proposition whilst still earning market rates of return on their capital This report sets out to present the virtues and shortcomings of scaling the use of guarantees with a special focus on opportunities for innovation by actors that operate outside the established MDB business model Since guarantees are not a form of financial flow unless circumstances require calling the guarantee with the guarantor assuming the debt of the borrower they differ from other development finance instruments in terms of structuring costs and objectives Advances in Business, Management and Entrepreneurship Ratih Hurriyati,Benny Tjahjono,Ikuro Yamamoto,Agus Rahayu,2020-01-06 The GCBME Book Series aims to promote the quality and methodical reach of the Global Conference on Business Management Entrepreneurship which is intended as a high quality scientific contribution to the science of business management and entrepreneurship The Contributions are the main reference articles on the topic of each book and have been subject to a strict peer review process conducted by experts in the fields The conference provided opportunities for the delegates to exchange new ideas and implementation of experiences to establish business or research connections and to find Global Partners for future collaboration The conference and resulting volume in the book series is expected to be held and appear annually The year 2019 theme of book and conference is Creating Innovative and Sustainable Value added Businesses in the Disruption Era The ultimate goal of GCBME is to provide a medium forum for educators researchers scholars managers graduate students and professional business persons from the diverse cultural backgrounds to present and discuss their researches knowledge and innovation within the fields of business management and entrepreneurship The GCBME conferences cover major thematic groups yet opens to other relevant topics Organizational Behavior Innovation Marketing Management Financial Management and Accounting Strategic Management Entrepreneurship and Green Business Encyclopedia of global warming and climate change S.
