Daguerreotypes Fugitive Subjects Contemporary Objects:

Daguerreotypes Lisa Saltzman, 2015-07-06 In the digital age photography confronts its future under the competing signs of ubiquity and obsolescence While technology has allowed amateurs and experts alike to create high quality photographs in the blink of an eye new electronic formats have severed the original photochemical link between image and subject At the same time recent cinematic photography has stretched the concept of photography and raised questions about its truth value as a documentary medium Despite this situation photography remains a stubbornly substantive form of evidence referenced by artists filmmakers and writers as a powerful emblem of truth photography has found its home in other media at precisely the moment of its own material demise By examining this idea of photography as articulated in literature film and the graphic novel Daguerreotypes demonstrates how photography secures identity for figures with an otherwise unstable sense of self Lisa Saltzman argues that in many modern works the photograph asserts itself as a guarantor of identity whether genuine or fabricated From Roland Barthes's Camera Lucida to Ridley Scott's Blade Runner W G Sebald's Austerlitz to Alison Bechdel's Fun Home we find traces of photography's fugitive subjects throughout contemporary culture Ultimately Daguerreotypes reveals how the photograph at once personal memento and material witness has inspired a range of modern artistic and critical practices

Retroactivity and Contemporary Art Craig Staff, 2018-04-19 Contemporary art is often preoccupied with time or acts in which the past is recovered Through specific case studies of artists who strategically work with historical moments this book examines how art from the last two decades has sought to mobilize these particular histories and to what effect against the backdrop of Modernism Drawing on the art theory of Rosalind Krauss and the philosophies of Paul Ricoeur Gerhard Richter and Pierre Nora Retroactivity and Contemporary Art interprets those works that foreground some aspect of retroactivity whether re enacting commemorating or re imagining as key artistic strategies This book is striking philosophical reflection on time within art and art within time and an indispensable read for those attempting to understand the artistic significance of history materiality and memory

Snapshots of the Soul Molly Thomasy Blasing, 2021-07-15 Snapshots of the Soul considers how photography has shaped Russian poetry from the early twentieth century to the present day Drawing on theories of the lyric and the elegy the social history of technology and little known archival materials Molly Thomasy Blasing offers close readings of poems by Boris Pasternak Marina Tsvetaeva Joseph Brodsky and Bella Akhmadulina as well as by the late and post Soviet poets Andrei Sen Sen kov Arkadii Dragomoshchenko and Kirill Medvedev to understand their fascination with the visual language representational power and metaphorical possibilities offered by the camera and the photographic image Within the context of long standing anxieties about the threat that visual media pose to literary culture Blasing finds that these poets were attracted to the affinities and tensions that exist between the lyric or elegy and the snapshot Snapshots of the Soul reveals that at the core of each poet's approach to writing the photograph is the urge to demonstrate the superior ability of poetic language to capture and convey human experience Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities Perfect Copies Shiamin Kwa,2023-01-13 Analyzing the way that recent works of graphic narrative use the comics form to engage with the problem of reproduction Shiamin Kwa's Perfect Copies reminds us that the mode of production and the manner in which we perceive comics are often quite similar to the stories they tell Perfect Copies considers the dual notions of reproduction mechanical as well as biological and explores how comics are works of reproduction that embed questions about the nature of reproduction itself Through close readings of the comics My Favorite Thing Is Monsters by Emil Ferris The Black Project by Gareth Brookes The Generous Bosom series by Conor Stechschulte Sabrina by Nick Drnaso and Panther by Brecht Evens Perfect Copies shows how these comics makers push the limits of different ideas of reproduction in strikingly different ways Kwa suggests that reading and thinking about books like these that push us to engage with these complicated questions teaches us how to become better readers Slow Painting Helen Westgeest,2020-10-29 The abundance of images in our everyday lives and the speed at which they are consumed seems to have left us unable to critique them To rectify this situation artists such as Daniel Richter Jaune Quick to See Smith and Artur Zmijewski have demonstrated that painting is brilliantly equipped to produce slow images that enable encourage and reward reflection In this book Helen Westgeest attempts to understand how various forms of slow painting can be used as tools to interrogate the visual mediations we encounter daily Painting was expected to disappear in the digital age but through interactive painting performances and painting like manipulated photographs and videos Westgeest shows how photography video and new media art have themselves developed the visual strategies that painting had already mastered Moreover the fleeting nature of digital mass media appears to have unlocked a desire for more physically stable and enduring pictures like paintings Slow Painting charts how in a world where the constant quest for speed can leave us exhausted the appeal of this slower medium has only grown Global Photography Erina Duganne,Heather Diack,Terri Weissman,2020-06-08 This innovative text recounts the history of photography through a series of thematically structured chapters Designed and written for students studying photography and its history each chapter approaches its subject by introducing a range of international contemporary photographers and then contextualizing their work in historical terms The book offers students an accessible route to gain an understanding of the key genres theories and debates that are fundamental to the study of this rich and complex medium Individual chapters cover major topics including Description and Abstraction Truth and Fiction The Body Landscape War Politics of Representation Form Appropriation Museums The Archive The Cinematic Fashion Photography Boxed focus studies throughout the text offer short interviews curatorial statements and reflections by photographers critics and leading scholars that link photography's history with its practice Short chapter summaries research questions and further reading lists help to reinforce learning and promote discussion Whether coming to the subject from an applied photography or art history background students will benefit from this book's engaging example led approach to the subject gaining a sophisticated understanding of international photography in historical terms Crisis

Style Michael Dango, 2021-11-16 In this expansive and provocative new work Michael Dango theorizes how aesthetic style manages crisis and why taking crisis seriously means taking aesthetics seriously Detoxing filtering bingeing and ghosting these are four actions that have come to define how people deal with the stress of living in a world that seems in permanent crisis As Dango argues they can also be used to describe contemporary art and literature Employing what he calls promiscuous archives Dango traverses media and re shuffles literary and art historical genealogies to make his case The book discusses social media filters alongside the minimalism of Donald Judd and La Monte Young and the television shows The West Wing and True Detective It reflects on the modernist cuisine of Ferran Adrià and the fashion design of Issey Miyake And it dissects writing by Barbara Browning William S Burroughs Raymond Carver Mark Danielewski Jennifer Egan Tao Lin David Mitchell Joyce Carol Oates Mary Robison and Zadie Smith Unpacking how the styles of these works detox filter binge or ghost their worlds Crisis Style is at once a taxonomy of contemporary cultural production and a theorization of action in a world always in need of repair Ultimately Dango presents a compelling argument for why we need aesthetic theory to understand what we're doing in our world today

Didactics of Smart Pedagogy Linda Daniela, 2018-11-27 The focus on smart education has become a new trend in the global educational field Some countries have already developed smart education systems and there is increasing pressure coming from business and tech communities to continue this development Simultaneously there are only fragmented studies on the didactic aspects of technology usage Thus pedagogy as a science must engage in a new research direction smart pedagogy This book seeks to engage in a new research direction that of smart pedagogy It launches discussions on how to use all sorts of smart education solutions in the context of existing learning theories and on how to apply innovative solutions in order to reduce the marginalization of groups in educational contexts It also explores transformations of pedagogical science the role of the educator applicable teaching methods learning outcomes and research and assessment of acquired knowledge in an effort to make the smart education process meaningful to a wide audience of international educators researchers and administrators working within and tangential to TEL

Musician in the Museum Charles Fairchild, 2021-01-14 In recent years popular music museums have been established in high profile locations in many of the presumed musical capitals of the world such as Los Angeles Liverpool Seattle Memphis and Nashville Most of these are defined by expansive experiential infrastructures centered around spectacular high tech displays of varying sizes and types Through over the top acts of display these museums influence and reflect the values and priorities in the public life of popular music This book examines the phenomenon of the popular music museum outside the typical and familiar frames of heritage and tourism Instead it looks at these institutions as markers of the broader entertainment industry in the era of its rise to global dominance It highlights the multiple manifestations of power as read across a range of institutions and material forms and discusses how this contributes to shaping the experience of popular culture speculative writing of Scottish born and California based writer Robert Duncan Milne 1844-99 whose works mark him as one of the forgotten pioneers of early science fiction. Hailed as the first full time science fiction writer in America, this critical edition draws together the most expansive collection of his writing ever published and places his life, works and themes into their historical, literary and scientific contexts. With his writing touching on nearly every subset of the genre including climate catastrophe, utopia, cryogenics, molecular re-engineering of the body, personality transfer, drone warfare, remote surveillance and satellite phones, this book offers an overdue correction to the science fiction canon. Grouped thematically and with volume and story introductions that connect Milne's work to his peers and science fiction scholarship, this is the essential guide to a crucially overlooked writer. Astonishingly prescient and fulfilling the missing link in science fiction literary history that bridges the gap between the likes of Jules Verne and H.G. Wells, Milne makes clear the often obscured contribution of both Scotland and California in the development of the science fiction genre.
